The Vietnam Years Michael Caulfield,2011-02-01 The Vietnam War was the longest and most divisive war in our history Almost 60 000 Australians served and more than 500 were killed At home thousands protested against the war and conscription and hundreds were sent to jail THE VIETNAM YEARS is the story of both sides of that war from the vicious fighting of the jungle patrols and the bravery shown by so many Australians at the famous Battle of Long Tan to families back home ripped apart by confusion and anger From Vung Tau to Nui Dat from Bankstown to Broadmeadows this is a book about Australians and for Australians

Buying on Time Antanas Sileika,1997 Take a step back into the dawn of suburban life Revisit the era when mothers in print dresses performed the arcane ritual of mixing the colour dot into the margarine fathers filled every room of the house in Weston with tobacco smoke and all the riches of America were to be had by buying on time Nothing you ever saw on Ozzie and Harriet ever looked anything like this East European immigrants to Toronto in the early fifties dreamed of the good life in the suburbs But they did not have any money so they put up an outhouse dug a pit in a new subdivision threw a roof over the hole and lived there among the lawns and gardens of their neighbours whose imaginations were largely limited to asphalt driveways Their neighbours were not amused Buying on Time is a very funny and occasionally poignant look at growing up in the suburbs in the 1950s and 60s This collection of linked stories follows an immigrant family as it fights to build a house and find a new life in Canada after World War II At the heart of the stories is the Old Man the irascible insanely self confident pipe smoking father who studies what he calls the English with an incredulity that is wildly comic and who marches into Eatons trailing sawdust in order to buy his depressed wife a new fur coat His English is bad and his religion is almost mediaeval yet he has cunning and a zest for life as well as a taste for Five Star Whisky
