Genius Of The Sea:

"The Genius of the Sea": Wallace Stevens' "The Idea of Order at Key West," Stanislaw Lem's Solaris, and the Earth as a Muse David L. Lavery, 1970 The Crowning of a Poet's Quest Paola Loreto, 2009 This first extended study of Derek Walcott's Hound 2000 defines the book as the culmination of the poetry and poetics of the Caribbean writer and Nobel Prize winner In this long poem Walcott achieves three goals pursued throughout his career to develop an original Caribbean aesthetic to meld the modes of poetry and prose and to formulate the Bildung of the island artist in terms of an autobiographical narrative The analysis provides an aesthetic and cultural evaluation of the poem in terms both of the Western poetic tradition to which it refers through its rich intertextuality and of its significance as a postcolonial milestone The commentary locates Walcott in an aesthetic tradition running from Emerson through the American Pragmatists to modernist poets describes his experimental use of certain central narrative strategies in his semi autobiographical long poems which is compared to those of another openly admired bilingual writer Vladimir Nabokov explores Walcott's revision of the epic mode and of the genre of autobiography delineates his unfolding of a post Romantic internalization of the poet's Arthurian quest and discusses his complex treatment of the multi layered metaphor of light as major evidence of the maturity of his style and poetics with their conscious cross fertilization between the literary cultures of Europe and the Caribbean An appendix to this study contains the transcriptions of various Walcott events that took place in Italy in the summers of 2000 and 2001 including a creative writing seminar a press conference and readings This extensive material opens a window onto Walcott's gifts as a teacher to his stringent yet passionate commitment to the art of poetry and to the ways in which he and his students grapple with the challenges of literary translation The Lariat, 1924 Poetic Gesture Kristine S. Santilli, 2013-12-16 This study addresses the problem of meaning as it is conveyed by poetic language attempting to move beyond some of the obstacles and boundaries of contemporary critical approaches By providing a phenomenological context and through a theoretical contemplation of certain myths as embodiments of the tacit logic of poetry the book argues that poems convey meaning much the way that spontaneous unreadable gestures do Moving between theory and practice and drawing upon the poetry of Wallace Stevens whose work is embedded with a richness and complexity of gesture the author shows how the poetic text sustains and embodies an inconvertible ancient and innately human form of linguistic knowledge

The Genius of the Sea Naeem Murr, 2015-06-03 According to Amos Radcliff's disability claim he lost a leg in an accident with a beer barrel but when social worker Daniel arrives to investigate he meets with a shock To begin with Amos is living in Daniel's childhood home a council flat still full of his dead mother's possessions and Amos's leg is still very much attached From this introduction a strange relationship develops between the two men Daniel finds himself drawn back to the flat again and again to hear Amos's hypnotic seafaring stories and to relive his own memories of his troubled relationships with his mother his best friend and his beloved wife Sally Then comes Amos's final shattering story University of Wisconsin Studies in Language and Literature University of Wisconsin,1928 Lyrics of the XIXth century William James Linton,Richard Henry Stoddard,1884 English Verse William James Linton,Richard Henry Stoddard,1883 Sea Breezes ,1924 The Secret of the East Oliver Huckel,1924 The Archaeology of Islands Paul Rainbird,2007-07-09

 Archaeologists have traditionally considered islands as distinct physical and social entities In this book Paul Rainbird discusses the historical construction of this characterization and questions the basis for such an understanding of island archaeology Through a series of case studies of prehistoric archaeology in the Mediterranean Pacific Baltic and Atlantic seas and oceans he argues for a decentering of the land in favor of an emphasis on the archaeology of the sea and ultimately a new perspective on the making of maritime communities The archaeology of islands is thus unshackled from approaches that highlight boundedness and isolation and replaced with a new set of principles that boundaries are fuzzy islanders are distinctive in their expectation of contacts with people from over the seas and that island life can tell us much about maritime communities Debating islands thus brings to the fore issues of identity and community and a concern with Western construction of other peoples Sea Power Nelson Macy,N. M. Hubbard,1939 The Arabian Nights' Entertainments ,1890 Very Little-- Almost Nothing Simon Critchley,2004 A compelling read Very Little Almost Nothing opens up new ways of understanding finitude modernity and the nature of imagination Revised edition with a new preface by the author
