Good Neighbour:

The Good Neighbor Jay Quinn, 2014-04-01 In The Good Neighbor Rory Fallon is walking his dog along the streets of the exclusive Venetian Vistas neighborhood when he notices activity at the house next door. New neighbors have arrived in the form of Austin and Meg Harden along with their two children. Before long the Hardens and Rory and his partner Bruno have formed a strange sometimes symbiotic relationship bringing up questions of love and marriage, trust and temptation. Reflecting our changing social fabric, the unfolding drama reveals that fences exist for a reason and that when you cross them the consequences can often have confounding results. Jay Quinn's Lambda nominated novels transcend traditional gay fiction exploring universal issues of marriage, aging, parents, addiction, and attraction, all while presenting unique characters and page-turning drama. Don't miss any of Quinn's novels: Metes and Bounds, Back Where He Started, The Good Neighbor, The Beloved Son, and The Boomerang Kid.

Schools of Democracy Julien Talpin, 2024-10-31 Schools of Democracy offers a vivid analysis of the long-term impact of engagement in participatory budgeting institutions in Europe. While democratic innovations flourish around the world, there have been great hopes for their potential to revitalize representative government and solve the increasing apathy of the public. Based on a rich ethnographic study in France, Italy, and Spain, this book shows how participatory institutions can encourage personal involvement by creating the procedural and social conditions conducive to the formation of a competent and involved citizenry. Rather than deliberation itself, it seems that informal discussions and interactions between a diverse public allow mutual learning and the beginning of a political trajectory for people at the margins of the public sphere. However, this book also shows that citizens can become disappointed by the little decision-making power they are granted as they leave the process often more cynical than before. Contains a unique study on the long-term individual impact of engagement in participatory institutions. While most research deals with short-term impact, Schools of Democracy addresses impact of participation after two years of engagement. Unique access to the black box of participatory institutions. While research on democratic innovations generally opt for an externalist perspective, Schools of Democracy details the routine of deliberative interactions showing how ordinary citizens speak up in public assemblies. From this perspective, the book offers incredibly rich empirical material coming from ethnographic research on how participatory democracy works. An original theoretical framework to the study of the individual impacts of participatory engagement. While most research are based on an implicit rational choice perspective, the pragmatist perspective adopted here sheds a different light on the studied phenomenon, stressing the co-construction of actors and their environment.

The Good Neighbor A.J. Banner, 2013 Shadow Cove Washington is the kind of town everyone dreams about: quaint streets, lush forests, good neighbors. That's what Sarah thinks as she settles into life with her new husband Jimmy. But all too soon she discovers an undercurrent of deception. And one October evening when Johnny is away, sudden tragedy destroys Sarah's happiness.
