Kleinfelder, 1993-04-15 Although Pablo Picasso's name is virtually synonymous with modernity his late graphics repeatedly turn back to the traditional theme of the artist and model Had the aging artist turned reactionary or is Picasso's treatment of the theme more subversive than anyone has suspected In this innovative study Karen L Kleinfelder rejects the claim that Picasso's later work was a failure The failing she claims lies more in the way we typically have read the images treating them merely as reflections of an old age style or of the artist's private life. Focusing on graphics dating from 1954 to 1970, Kleinfelder shows how Picasso plays with the artist model theme to extend, subvert, and parody both the possibilities and limits of representation. For Kleinfelder, Picasso's graphic work both mystifies and demystifies the creative process, venerates and mocks the effects of aging, and the artist's self-image as a living old master, and acknowledges and denies his own fear of death. Using recent interpretive and literary theory, Kleinfelder probes the three-way relationship between artist, model, and canvas. The dynamics of this relationship provided Picasso with an open-ended textual framework for exploring the dichotomies of man/woman/self/other and vitality/mortality. What unfolds is the artist's struggle not only with the impossibility of representing the model on canvas but also with the inevitability of his own death. Kleinfelder explores how Picasso's means of pursuing these issues allows him to defer closure on a long, productive career. By focusing on the graphics rather than the paintings, Kleinfelder contradicts the primacy of the painted masterpiece; she steers the reader away from the assumption that the artist must work toward creating a final body of work that signifies the culmination of his search for a coherent identity. Picasso's search, she argues, realizes itself in the creative process. She interprets the late graphics not as a biographical statement but as a tool for investigating the possibilities of representation within the limits of Picasso's medium and his lifetime. Richly illustrated, Kleinfelder's book will open up new approaches to the late work of this complex artist.

Making Time Memory Jockisch Holloway, 2006. Between March and October of 1968, Picasso produced 347 etchings in varying sizes and techniques. Uncharacteristically, he did very little drawing and almost no painting during that year. He abandoned sculpture altogether. Instead, he turned his gaze almost entirely in the direction of the etchings. His concentration on them to the exclusion of other media marks Suite 347 as a particularly condensed site for the construction of meaning. One of the aims of this book is to establish how and under what conditions he constructed that meaning.

Finance, 1974. Erdem Erdem Moralioglu, 2025-10-07. A landmark first book from the celebrated British designer Erdem Moralioglu published to coincide with his 20th year in fashion. ERDEM is a poetic and personal immersion into the world of Erdem Moralioglu and the globally renowned fashion house he has built over two decades. The monograph delves into the designer's vision and process, underpinned by his vivid imagination and narrative flair. The book captures Erdem's inspirations and obsessions, the muses and collaborators that forge his compelling approach to fashion and design. Echoing Erdem's own layering of historical references and cultural touchstones, the book interweaves primary source material, artworks, and photography from seminal 20th and 21st-century names, including Alasdair McLellan, Campbell Addy, Craig McDean, Ethan James Green, Inez, foreword by Anna Wintour, contributions by Andrew Bolton, Charlie Porter, Christian Lacroix, Glenn Close, Hanya Yanagihara, IB Kamara, Maria Balshaw, Nicholas Cullinan, Olivier Gabet, Polly Stenham, Ruthie Rogers, Sarah Mower, and Tim Blanks.
