Gostling Manuscript:

"The" Gostling Manuscript, 1977 The Gostling Manuscript John Gostling, 2012-07-11 The rare and beautiful Gostling Manuscript is a primary source for the anthems of Henry Purcell and other major composers of the English Restoration period Listed as missing since its sale to an anonymous buyer in 1935 the manuscript was eventually discovered in the Humanities Research Center at the University of Texas at Austin This facsimile edition of the Gostling Manuscript sometimes referred to by scholars as the W Kennedy Gostling Manuscript made the document available to a wide audience for the first time in its history The anthems in this volume were assembled by the Reverend John Gostling a celebrated bass soloist and an assiduous collector of the contemporary music of his day His musical taste and editorial judgment not to mention his skill as a copyist were excellent The Gostling Manuscript completed around 1706 is considered essential for collating and editing some of the best anthems of the period These sixty four pieces fair copied in full score include seventeen by Purcell twenty four by John Blow four each by William Turner Pelham Humfrey and Jeremiah Clark three each by Matthew Locke and Thomas Tudway one by both William Child and Francis Pigott and three arrangements by Henry Aldrich of anthems by Carissimi Byrd and Wise Gostling appended inscriptions to many of the pieces giving the date and circumstances of composition notes of considerable value to the musical historian This folio size facsimile edition will serve not only as an invaluable anthology but also as a unique and singularly helpful source of information about English musical life in the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries The foreword by Franklin B Zimmerman provides a brief history of the Gostling Manuscript Purcell Manuscripts Robert Shay, Robert Thompson, 2006-11-02 Few details are known about the life of Henry Purcell This book provides an in depth analysis of the most obvious documentary evidence of Purcell s career the music manuscripts of his own hand and those copied by his colleagues Robert Shay and Robert Thompson offer a richly illustrated study of Purcell s sources examining in detail the physical features of the manuscripts as well as their musical content Their survey sheds light on the chronology of composition and copying of Purcell s works and reassesses the place of extant autographs in his musical development Major sources are fully catalogued providing information about the context in which Purcell s music was collected and performed and his handwriting is more closely examined than ever before The book represents a significant reference tool for scholars applying a forensic approach that greatly enriches our knowledge of the composer and the music of his time The Gostling Manuscript John Gostling, 1977 The Relationship Between the Gostling Manuscript and the York Minister Part-Books Mary McLaughlin, 1982 Liturgy and Music Robin A. Leaver, Joyce Ann Zimmerman, 1998 Liturgy and Music Lifetime Learning is not only for pastoral music majors but also for professional pastoral musicians pastors and liturgical practitioners This volume should help those involved with liturgy especially its music gain a basic knowledge of liturgy worship and an introduction to the scope and role of liturgical music and musicians in various Christian denominations Selected Verse Anthems John Blow, 2009-01-01 The eight verse anthems in this edition constitute the only full scores of works in Blow's hand that survive in this abundant genre. The scores are located in two manuscripts that are now parts of the collections at Christ Church Oxford and the Fitzwilliam Museum Cambridge. The Oxford manuscript includes five anthems from the 1670s and each displays a variety of structural and musical rhetoric procedures making them ideal representatives of Blow's multifaceted early style. The Cambridge manuscript dates from ca 1704 and contains three late works on a much larger scale. As a group, the later anthems require considerably greater virtuosity from the solo singers and individual verse sections grow both longer and more numerous. As representative examples within a much larger repertoire, the works selected for this edition help to reveal important facets in the career of the first person to hold the title Composer of the Chapel Royal.

The first twenty-six items are on pp. 1-205 counting from the front of the manuscript; another thirty-eight items are on pp. 1-213 numbered from the back of the volume. Pp. 205 and 213 share a leaf. 'To fill, forbear, or adorne' Rebecca Herissone, 2017-07-05. This is the first study to provide a systematic and thorough investigation of continuo realization styles appropriate to Restoration sacred music, an area of performance practice that has never previously been properly assessed. Rebecca Herissone undertakes detailed analysis of a group of organ books closely associated with the major Restoration composers Purcell, Blow, and Humfrey and the London institutions where they spent their professional lives. By investigating the relationship between the organ books, two-stave arrangements, and full scores of the same pieces, Herissone demonstrates that the books are subtle sources of information to the accompanist, not just short or skeleton scores. Using this evidence, she formulates a model for continuo realization of this repertory based on the doubling of vocal parts, an approach that differs significantly from that adopted by most modern editors and which throws into question much of the accepted continuo practice in modern performance of this repertory.
