compulsion of southern writers to discuss their region some defending it others damning it He focuses on fourteen practitioners of the southern genre of regional confession who wrote between 1850 and 1970 showing how they in many cases linking their own destinies with the fate of the South produced deeply felt impassioned books that sought to explain the region to outsiders as well as to fellow southerners and perhaps most of all to themselves Narrative and Critical History of America: The English and French in North America, 1689-1763. 1887 Justin Winsor, 1887 Narrative and critical history of America, ed. by J.
