First Things First Meeting Basic Human Needs In The Developing Countries:

First Things First Paul Streeten, World Bank, 1981 The authors defend the basic needs approach to economic development which has been the subject of controversy and suspicion among many groups First Things First Paul Patrick Streeten, 1984 First Things First : Meeting Basic Human Needs in the Developing Countries, 1981 From Marshall Plan to Debt Crisis Robert E. Wood, 2024-06-04 This book traces the evolution of concessional financing to Third World countries from its postwar origins in the Marshall Plan to the debt crisis that engulfed virtually the entire Third World in the early 1980s It documents the evolution of a system of aid provision of structured access to concessional external financing The central focus is on how this structure of access to aid has changed over time and shaped development options and choices in the Third World From this perspective the emergence of the debt crisis is closely connected to the role of aid in the world economy Although the debt crisis had other roots as well this book elucidates an important set of determinants generally overlooked within the systems of aid provision itself It further seeks to show that the debt crisis defines a new era not simply a set of discrete and extraordinary events between say Mexico's request for rescheduling in August 1982 and Argentina's coming to terms with the International Monetary Fund in September 1984 The debt crisis has profoundly altered the international environment that Third World countries face and the legacy of debt will continue to be a central focus of international relations and development choices for years to come This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Private Voluntary Organizations As Agents Of Development Robert F. Gorman, 2019-06-04 Private voluntary organizations have an increasingly important role to play in the provision of development assistance either as alternative forms of resource flow or as channels of aid that are systematically integrated into the official intergovernmental aid system This book explores the practical and theoretical aspects of PVOs including the Transactions of the Asiatic Society of Japan Asiatic Society of Japan, 2010 List of transactions v 1 41 in v 41 Apostles of Development David C. Engerman, 2025-05-30 The battle against global poverty that began after World War II was a major undertaking engaging economists engineers and organizations Featuring front and centre were six remarkable economists Amartya Sen Manmohan Singh Mahbub ul Haq Jagdish Bhagwati Rehman Sobhan and Lal Jayawardena all born as colonial subjects in the British Empire and studied at Cambridge University They represented a new figure on the world scene the Third World development expert and played a crucial role in global debates about poverty and development Apostles of Development examines their different economic doctrines and the ongoing debate surrounding economic theory in poor countries compared to rich ones The lives of these apostles reveal how development did not begin with textbooks but with real world attempts to solve very specific and pressing problems Finally the book emphasizes that development was a Global South project first and foremost aiming to improve the conditions of the world's poorest countries. It challenges the conventional wisdom that sees development only as a tool of rich countries to dominate or as proof of their humanitarian spirit. It argues that development succeeds not when it follows ideological prescriptions but when it looks for what works. The fading of grand visions shaped by ideological concerns has been one of the lasting effects of the end of the Cold War. The book argues that the best way forward is determined modestly focusing on practical matters such as addressing gross inequality and insisting that development means more than just economic growth. Given the salience of questions of economic inequality and the constant visibility of the promises and problems of economic development in the world today, this is a timely and important read.

Development Aid Confronts Politics Thomas Carothers, Diane de Gramont, 2013-04-01. A new lens on development is changing the world of international aid. The overdue recognition that development in all sectors is an inherently political process is driving aid providers to try to learn how to think and act politically. Major donors are pursuing explicitly political goals alongside their traditional socioeconomic aims and introducing more politically informed methods throughout their work. Yet these changes face an array of external and internal obstacles from heightened sensitivity on the part of many aid-receiving governments about foreign political interventionism to inflexible aid delivery mechanisms and entrenched technocratic preferences within many aid organizations. This pathbreaking book assesses the progress and pitfalls of the attempted politics revolution in development aid and charts a constructive way forward.

Contents: Introduction, 1. The New Politics Agenda: The Original Framework (1960s-1980s), 2. A Political Roots: Breaking the Political Taboo (1990s-2000s), 3. The Door Opens to Politics, 4. Advancing Political Goals, 5. Toward Politically Informed Methods: The Way Forward, 6. Politically Smart Development Aid, 7. The Unresolved Debate on Political Goals, 8. The Integration Frontier, Conclusion, 9. The Long Road to Politics.

Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard, 2006. A comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries.

Religion in Development Séverine Deneulin, 2013-07-18. Development practice is full of examples of the importance of religion in the lives of people in developing countries. However, religion has largely remained unexplored in development studies. This timely new book aims to fill that gap. The authors expertly review how religion has been treated in the evolution of development thought, how it has been conceptualised in the social sciences, and highlights the major deficiencies of the assumption of secularism. The book argues that development theory and practice needs to rewrite its dominant script regarding its treatment of religion, a script which has so far been heavily inscribed in the secular tradition. It puts forward an understanding of religions as traditions that rest on central thesis and teachings which never cease to be re-interpreted in the light of the social, political, and historical context. In addition to providing a conceptual framework for analysing the role of religion in development, the book provides numerous empirical examples drawn from the Christian and Islamic religious traditions. This comprehensive new guide to this key issue is essential for students, development thinkers, and practitioners who wish to understand better.
