The Suspense Thriller Charles Derry, 2010-06-21 This book is a comprehensive study of one of the most popular genres in the cinema From a perspective sympathetic to popular culture this study analyzes a large number of primarily American and European films by a variety of distinguished directors including Alfred Hitchcock Claude Chabrol John Frankenheimer Michelangelo Antonioni and Costa Gavras Indispensable to anyone interested in understanding how suspense thrillers work and what they mean this book provides insightful analysis of hundreds of memorable films while at the same time working as a virtual how to manual for anyone trying to write a Hitchcock like thriller The first section of the book is primarily theoretical It offers a bibliographical survey and then explains why we so profoundly enjoy these suspenseful films of murder and intrigue A chapter on Thrills or How Objects and Empty Spaces Compete to Threaten Us explores the psychological concept of the thrill and relates it to the psyche of the spectator To what extent does the suspense thriller represent a symbolic and vicarious experience of danger A chapter on Suspense That Makes the Spectator Take a Breath explores the crucial narrative concept of suspense and relates it to the psychological mechanisms of anxiety incited in the spectator Why do we like to be scared A final theoretical chapter offers a dynamic definition of the suspense thriller derived in part from Edgar Allan Poe and based primarily on content analysis The second section of the book is more of an historical survey and devotes one chapter to each of the suspense thriller s primary sub genres These chapters provide close readings of more than 150 major films and detailed analysis of the suspense thriller s conventions themes and recurrent iconography Sub genres include The Postman Always Rings Twice Body Heat The Manchurian Candidate The China Syndrome Missing The Passenger Spellbound Obsession Marathon Man and Blue Velvet A final chapter explores areas for further research and offers concluding insights

Hollywood and Israel Tony Shaw, Giora Goodman, 2022-03-08 Winner 2023 Shapiro Best Book Award Association for Israel Studies From Frank Sinatra s early pro Zionist rallying to Steven Spielberg s present day peacemaking Hollywood has long enjoyed a special relationship with Israel This book offers a groundbreaking account of this relationship both on and off the screen Tony Shaw and Giora Goodman investigate the many ways in which Hollywood s moguls directors and actors have supported or challenged Israel for more than seven decades They explore the complex story of Israel s relationship with American Jewry and illuminate how media and soft power have shaped the Arab Israeli conflict Shaw and Goodman draw on a vast range of archival sources to demonstrate how show business has played a pivotal role in crafting the U S Israel alliance They probe the influence of Israeli diplomacy on Hollywood s output and lobbying activities but also highlight the limits of ideological devotion in high risk entertainment industries The book details the political involvement with Israel and Palestine of household names such as Eddie Cantor Kirk Douglas Elizabeth Taylor Barbra Streisand Vanessa Redgrave Arnold Schwarzenegger Robert De Niro and Natalie Portman It also spotlights the role of key behind the scenes players like Dore Schary Arthur Krim Arnon Milchan and Haim Saban Bringing the story up to the moment

Shaw and Goodman contend that the Hollywood Israel relationship might now be at a turning point. Shedding new light on the political power that images and celebrity can wield, Hollywood and Israel shows the world's entertainment capital to be an important player in international affairs. Reel Bad Arabs Jack G. Shaheen, 2012-12-31. A groundbreaking book that dissects a slanderous history dating from cinema's earliest days to contemporary Hollywood blockbusters that feature machine gun wielding and bomb blowing evil Arabs. Award-winning film authority Jack G. Shaheen notes that only Native Americans have been more relentlessly smeared on the silver screen. Painstakingly makes his case that Arab has remained Hollywood's shameless shorthand for bad guy long after the movie industry has shifted its portrayal of other minority groups. In this comprehensive study of over one thousand films arranged alphabetically in such chapters as Villains, Sheikhs, Cameos, and Cliffhangers, Shaheen documents the tendency to portray Muslim Arabs as Public Enemy 1: brutal, heartless, uncivilized. Others bent on terrorizing civilized Westerners. Shaheen examines how and why such a stereotype has grown and spread in the film industry and what may be done to change Hollywood's defamation of Arabs. Costa-Gavras John J. Michalczyk, Susan A. Michalczyk, 2022-07-14. Costa Gavras Encounters with History explores the life and work of the director intertwined with historical and socio-political events from the early stages of his career emigrating to France from Greece in 1955 and first studying at the Sorbonne then focusing on filmmaking at IDHEC now La Fémis. He became an internationally respected director first with his Oscar award-winning film Z (1969) and continued with a vast array of films including his most recent work Adults in the Room (2019). His films portray the complexities of human nature, relationships challenged by historical and contemporary socio-political issues. In this overview of the director's films, the authors shed light on his encounters with history from his youth in war-torn Greece to his later films on immigration, unemployment, global capitalistic greed, and the abuse of political and economic power in Europe. Costa Gavras' films have spanned several decades and several continents to combat unethical laws and injustice, oppression, legal and illegal violence, and torture. Throughout his evolution in the world of cinema for over half a century as director, writer, and producer, Costa Gavras has told human interest stories that entertain and inspire and that help us better understand ourselves and a fragile, fragmented world. The Chautauquan, 1894.
