Fifth Window:

Supreme Court, The Verses Formerly Inscribed on Twelve Windows in the Choir of Canterbury Cathedral, 1901

Physiology and Pathology in the Perinatal Period R.H. Gevers, J.H. Ruys, 2012-12-06 The course of history is never one of smooth progression. Periods of relative quietness are interrupted by periods of wars and revolution. This pattern resembles that of a river which before flowing into the delta has to pass countless rapids. The same holds for the development of the science of medicine. In obstetrics some of these revolutions or rapids consist of the introduction of conservative obstetrical treatment by Lucas Johann Boer at the beginning of the nineteenth century, the discovery of the cause of puerperal sepsis by Oliver Wendell Holmes and Semmelweis between 1843 and 1847, the introduction of the principle of asepsis by Pasteur in 1874, the introduction of prenatal care at the end of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth century, Mijnlieff Treub De Snoo, the improvement of surgical techniques, the possibility to treat shock by bloodtransfusion and finally the acquisition of new means for the effective therapy of infection. All these developments have led to a sharp reduction of maternal and perinatal mortality. In this connection it must be pointed out that such a reduction could never have been accomplished without the favourable social changes as a result of which medical and prenatal care could be made universally available. In recent years there has been another revolutionary development in obstetrics. Two factors have been responsible for this: the application of basic sciences in obstetrics and the dissolution of the isolation with respect to other clinical disciplines.

The City of Chartres Henri Jean Louis Joseph Massé, 1900

Discipleship on the Edge Darrell W. Johnson, 2004 Revelation is probably the most read but least understood book of the Bible. History is replete with examples of how not to interpret it and books featuring end of world prophecy claims based on Revelation consistently top the bestseller lists. But how can the message of such an enigmatic book be applied to our lives today? In Discipleship on the Edge Darrell W. Johnson drives home the challenging and practical message of Revelation in thirty carefully crafted sermons. Paying careful attention to the original context of Revelation and the circumstances surrounding its composition, Johnson shows that the book is not a crystal ball but rather a discipleship manual. Thoroughly researched and yet accessible, this collection of sermons is a helpful resource for pastors and small group leaders who are looking for models to help them preach and teach the message of Revelation in a time when there is much confusion about the end times. Darrell W. Johnson serves as Scholar in Residence at The Way Church and Canadian Church Leaders Network in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. A popular conference and retreat speaker, he has also served as the preaching pastor for a number of congregations in North America and the Philippines, as well as serving as Adjunct Professor of Preaching for the Doctor of Ministry program at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California, and a Teaching Fellow at Regent College. His other books include Experiencing the Trinity and Fifty Seven Words That Change The World.
