Could God Be This Good? Dr.

M. Tyrone Cushman, 2014-04-15 This book represents my attempt and my exhortation to others to step back from the trees in order to see the forest I believe we human beings were built to win I believe we were fashioned in eternity complete with built in corrections for the flaws that would develop in the time realm because of the free radical of free will I believe therefore that the flaws and sins of humankind have been accounted for and provided for from before the foundation of the world All sins and their consequences from serial murder to self murder from heinous tortures rapes racism and wars to all diseases and every sickness whether physical mental or religious were laid on Jesus and borne away The most important phrases Jesus uttered from the cross were Father forgive them and It is finished He spoke those words as He died the most horrible unfair and undeserved death any man could suffer He was holy just and good He died for us the unholy the unjust and the ungodly yet He said Father forgive them Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, 1943
