Bent, Jared C. Hartt, Peter Lefferts, 2021 From its origins in the thirteenth century the Latin texted motet in England and France became the most significant and diverse polyphonic genre of the fourteenth a body of music important both for its texts and its variety of musical structures However although the motet in England plays a vital role in the music historical narrative of the first decades of the 1300s it has too often been overlooked in modern scholarship due largely to its preservation in numerous but almost entirely fragmentary sources 0In 2017 substantial new fragments of medieval polyphony came to light They originated at the Benedictine monastery of Abbotsbury a major institution located high above Chesil Beach on Dorset s Jurassic Coast The two leaves once headed an imposing musical scroll and preserve significant portions of four large scale Latin texted motets from early fourteenth century England 0This book introduces the manuscript and its provenance in Abbotsbury relates it to other scrolls of late medieval music contextualizes its motets within the larger corpus of contemporary Latin texted motets and analyses and reconstructs each of the motets providing complete performable transcriptions of three of these compositions as well as three of its large scale comparands Spurred by the Dorset discovery this monograph the first in thirty five years devoted to the medieval motet in England offers a new evaluation of the richness of the English repertory in its own terms *A summary catalogue of Western manuscripts in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, which have not hitherto been catalogued in the quarto series. 7 vols.
