Unfastened Eleanor Rose Ty, Unfastened examines literary works and films by Asian Americans and Asian Canadians that respond critically to globality the condition in which traditional national cultural geographical and economic boundaries have been supposedly surmounted In this wide ranging exploration Eleanor Ty reveals how novelists such as Brian Ascalon Roley Han Ong Lydia Kwa and Nora Okja Keller interrogate the theoretical freedom that globalization promises in their depiction of the underworld of crime and prostitution She looks at the social critiques created by playwrights Betty Quan and Sunil Kuruvilla who use figures of disability to accentuate the effects of marginality Investigating works based on fantasy Ty highlights the ways feminist writers Larissa Lai Chitra Divakaruni Hiromi Goto and Ruth Ozeki employ myth science fiction and magic realism to provide alternatives to global capitalism She notes that others such as filmmaker Deepa Mehta and performers dramatists Nadine Villasin and Nina Aquino play with the multiple identities afforded to them by transcultural connections Ultimately Ty sees in these diverse narratives unfastened mobile subjects heroes and travelers who use everyday tactics to challenge inequitable circumstances in their lives brought about by globalization

Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana, 2015-06-12 In Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana examines how Asian American narratives communicate and critique to varying degrees the emotions that power the perception of Asians as racially different Santa Ana explores various forms of Asian American cultural production ranging from literature and graphic narratives to film and advertising to illuminate the connections between global economic relations and the emotions that shape aspirations for the good life He illustrates his argument with examples including the destitute Filipino immigrant William Paulinha in Han Ong's Fixer Chao who targets his anger on the capitalist forces of objectification that racially exploit him and Nan and Pingpin in Ha Jin's A Free Life who seek happiness and belonging in America Racial Feelings addresses how Asian Americans both resist and rely on stereotypes in their writing and art work In addition Santa Ana investigates how capitalism shapes and structures an emotional discourse that represents Asians as both economic exemplars and threats

Transitive Cultures Christopher B. Patterson, 2018-04-02 Texts written by Southeast Asian migrants have often been read taught and studied under the label of multicultural literature But what if the ideology of multiculturalism with its emphasis on authenticity and identifiable cultural difference is precisely what this literature resists Transitive Cultures offers a new perspective on transpacific Anglophone literature revealing how these chameleonic writers enact a variety of hybrid transnational identities and intimacies Examining literature from Malaysia Singapore and the Philippines as well as from Southeast Asian migrants in Canada Hawaii and the U S mainland this book considers how these authors use English strategically as a means for building interethnic alliances and critiquing ruling power structures in both Southeast Asia and North America Uncovering a wealth of texts from queer migrants those who resist ethnic stereotypes and those who feel few ties to their ostensible homelands Transitive Cultures challenges conventional expectations regarding diaspora and minority writers

Constructing the Literary Self Patsy J. Daniels, 2014-06-02 In the twentieth century as previously excluded groups including ethnic minorities women the disabled and the differently gendered gained a voice in society group identity also changed and new definitions became necessary Whether through their group affiliations or in spite of these affiliations many individuals sought a new definition of themselves As can be expected much literature explores these changes and depicts the quest for new definitions and the search for individuality in the light of new definitions Construction or definition of the self was once available only to the elite and the freedom of some to define their identity was sacrificed so that others could make their own self definitions this practice can be found throughout much of history This volume is about that kind of oppression and various strategies of escaping from oppression as depicted in serious literature Its thirteen essays all by recognized scholars are divided into five categories Race Gender and the Self Assimilation and the Self Black Males and the Self Female Sexuality and the Self and The Family and the Self
