Five Modern Poets:

Five Modern Poets Barbara Bleiman, 1993      Modern poets, a dialogue in verse Modern poets, 1813      Modern Poets Lilio Gregorio Giraldi, 2011-05-31 Lilio Gregorio Giraldi authored many works on literary history mythology and antiquities Among the most famous are his dialogues modeled on Cicero's Brutus translated here into English for the first time The work gives a panoramic view of European poetry in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth century concentrating above all on Italy      Ten Modern Poets Rica Brenner, 1930      One Hundred Modern Scottish Poets David Herschell Edwards, 1889      Modern Scottish Poets David Herschell Edwards, 1889      Second Selections from Modern Poets Sir John Collings Squire, 1927      Modern poets. Five Jim Hunter,      The Nation and Athenæum, 1925      Chief Modern Poets of England and America Gerald DeWitt Sanders, 1929      Some Modern Poets and Other Critical Essays Edward Lewis Davison, 1928      Unplanned Cities in Modern American Poetry Daniela Kukrechtová, 2025-07-10 Reveals how five modern American poets challenged prevailing discourses about urbanization through lyrical representations of cities and the diverse people who lived in them In early 20th century America industrialization and the influx of immigrants and rural migrants into urban centers fostered a certain representation of and distaste for cities and their inhabitants The dominant discourse was one of containment through utopian planning and violent reshaping often reflected in both policy making and writings about cities during this time Yet as Daniela Kukrechtov identifies urban literature also reveals voices that challenged that narrative Unplanned Cities in Modern American Poetry shows how the formally innovative works of five poets Jean Toomer William Carlos Williams Hart Crane Frank O'Hara and Gwendolyn Brooks worked against anti-urban discourse Their works displayed a love for disorderly cityscapes and the actual urbanites who inhabit them promoting the radical idea that cities were for people while revealing the extreme dystopian utopian discourses that helped create and maintain divisions and disparities Kukrechtov argues that besides offering a radical critique these poets also used their poetry to imagine the mental and emotional attitudes of urban dwellers toward their environment She therefore offers the urban ecocritical approach often missing in literary analyses of modern American poetry Simultaneously the lyrical and socially engaged imagination in these works that is the human implications of various plans designs and policies that helped create the modern American city represent a voice often unheard in urban studies and its history      Shakespeare and the Modern Poet Neil Corcoran, 2010-04-01 Shakespeare is a major influence on poets writing in English but the dynamics of that influence in the twentieth century have never been as closely analysed as they are in this important study More than an account of the ways in which Shakespeare is figured in both the poetry and the critical prose of modern poets this book presents a provocative new view of poetic interrelationship Focusing on W B Yeats T S Eliot W H Auden Ted Hughes and Sylvia Plath Neil Corcoran uncovers the relationships combative as well as sympathetic between these poets themselves as they are intertwined in their engagements with Shakespeare Corcoran offers many enlightening close readings fully alert to contemporary theoretical debates This original study of influence and reception beautifully displays the nature of poetic influence both of Shakespeare on the twentieth century and among modern poets as they respond to Shakespeare *One hundred modern Scottish poets [afterw.] Modern Scottish poets.
