Four Views On Hell:

Four Views on Hell John F. Walvoord, Zachary J. Hayes, Clark H. Pinnock, 2010-08-10 Most contemporary Christians acknowledge the doctrine of hell but they'd rather not think about how God punishes the wicked. The authors of Four Views on Hell meet this subject head-on with different views on what the Scriptures say. Is hell to be understood literally as a place of eternal smoke and flames? Or are such images simply metaphors for a real but different form of punishment? Is there such a thing as conditional immortality in which God annihilates the souls of the wicked rather than punishing them endlessly? Is there a Purgatory and if so how does it fit into the picture? The interactive Counterpoints forum allows the reader to see the four views on hell: literal, metaphorical, conditional, and purgatorial in interaction with each other. Each view in turn is presented, critiqued, and defended. This evenhanded approach is ideal for comparing and contrasting views in order to form a personal conclusion about one of Christianity's key doctrines. The Counterpoints series provides a forum for comparison and critique of different views on issues important to Christians. Counterpoints books address two categories: Church Life and Bible and Theology. Complete your library with other books in the Counterpoints series.

Four Views on the Church's Mission Zondervan, 2017-10-24 What is the Church's mission? What does it mean to participate in God's mission personally? How do mission and culture interact and conflict? This book articulates various evangelical views regarding the church's mission and provides a healthy, vigorous, and gracious debate on this controversial topic. In a helpful Counterpoints format, this volume demonstrates the unique theological frameworks, doctrinal convictions, and missiological conclusions that inform and distinguish the views: Soteriological Mission (Jonathan Leeman), Participatory Mission (Christopher Wright), Contextual Mission (John Franke), Ecumenical/Political Mission (Peter Leithart). Each contributor answers the same key questions based on their biblical interpretations and theological convictions: What is your biblical/theological framework for mission? How does your definition of mission inform your understanding of the church's mission? How does the Mission of God and Kingdom of God relate to the mission of the church? What is the gospel? How does your view on the gospel inform the mission of the church? How do verbal proclamation of the gospel, discipleship, corporate worship, caring for the poor, social justice, restoring shalom, developing culture, and international missions fit into the church's mission? The interactive format helps readers get a clearer picture of why different conclusions are drawn and provides a fresh starting point for discussion and debate of the church's mission. The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair-minded and respectful of the biblical text. Each volume is a one-stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion.

Disturbing Divine Behavior Eric A. Seibert, How should we understand biblical texts where God is depicted as acting irrationally, violently, or destructively? If we distance ourselves from disturbing portrayals of God, how should we understand the authority of Scripture? How does the often wrathful God portrayed in the Old Testament relate to the God of love proclaimed in the New Testament?

Is that contrast even accurate Disturbing Divine Behavior addresses these perennially vexing questions for the student of the Bible Eric A Seibert calls for an engaged and discerning reading of the Old Testament that distinguishes the particular literary and theological goals achieved through narrative characterizations of God from the rich understanding of the divine to which the Old Testament as a whole points Providing illuminating reflections on theological reading as well this book will be a welcome resource for any readers who puzzle over disturbing representations of God in the Bible Four Views on Hell Zondervan,2016-03-08 Recent years have seen much controversy regarding a unified Christian doctrine of hell Do we go to heaven or hell when we die Or do we cease to exist Are believers and unbelievers ultimately saved by grace in the end By focusing on recent theological arguments Four Views on Hell Second Edition highlights why the church still needs to wrestle with the doctrine of hell In the fair minded and engaging Counterpoints format four leading scholars introduce us to the current views on eternal judgment with particular attention given to the new voices that have entered the debate Contributors and views include Denny Burk representing a principle of Eternal Conscious Torment John Stackhouse representing a principle of Annihilationism Conditional Immortality Robin Parry representing a principle of Universalism Ultimate Reconciliation Jerry Walls representing a principle of Purgatory Preston Sprinkle concludes the discussion by evaluating each view noting significant points of exchange between the essayists The interactive nature of the volume allows the reader to reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of each view and come to an informed conclusion BONUS CONTENT Includes entire first edition of Four Views on Hell to help readers grasp the history of the discussion and how it has developed over the last twenty years Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 4 Joel Beeke,Paul M. American Cities, Historical China and Books Relating to New York Percy Rivington Pyne, 1917      Heaven Jerry L. Walls, 2002-08-15 The Christian doctrine of heaven has been a moral source of enormous power in western culture Recently however that doctrine has lost much of its grip on the western imagination and has become a vague and largely ignored part of the Christian creed Walls argues that the doctrine of heaven is ripe for reconsideration and that we profoundly need to recover the hope of heaven in order to recover our very humanity      Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Knight, 2003 This is a completely new typeset of the monumental 1957 classic containing an extensive historical and theological introduction and detailed in text notations by George R Knight Originally produced by the Ministerial Association of the General Conference of Seventh day Adventists Questions on Doctrine was widely acclaimed and distributed in the late 1950s and early 1960s as a forthright answer to questions from evangelicals about key elements of Adventist doctrine Controversy regarding the book s position on the nature of Christ and the atonement soon stopped its circulation As part of the Adventist Classic Library Knight s essays provide the background for how the book came about and describes the interaction of the principal players involved in the crisis that shelved this classic work for more than a generation      Choice ,1993      Bible Review ,1992      Journal of Biblical Literature ,1993 Vols for 1960 include Proceedings of the annual meetings of the Society      The Destiny of the Soul William Rounseville Alger, 1878      Letters to Young Scholars William C. Ringenberg, 2003      The Possibility of Salvation Among the Unevangelised Daniel Strange, 2002 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul s metaphorical language of death in Romans 6 1 11 The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development Dr Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul that it was the apostle s own insight into the meaning of Christ s death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin On the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which Paul explains the believer s death to sin by presenting Christ s death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ s death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam s sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment In contrast hope is presented in the context of burial The believers burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ s family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ s death an act pictured in baptism It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life
