

Elements of an Essay

Introduction

Grab your reader's attention with an anecdote, quote, or interesting fact related to your topic

Provide any background info necessary for your readers to understand the topic and/or appreciate its significance

State your arguable claim and include the specific ideas your paper will address as justification for that claim

Body Paragraphs

Include as many body paragraphs as needed to fully develop your ideas. Also, don't be afraid to split a main idea into multiple paragraphs if one will be too large!

Indicate the specific point to be addressed in a single paragraph. Include key words that connect directly to the thesis

Specific points/examples that prove the topic sentence's claim true. You can have as many supporting points in your paragraph as needed, as long as each one is backed up by evidence.

Provide justification for the topic sentence's claim. Evidence can come in the form of data, quotations, charts, facts, or other cited information

Reinforce the main point of the topic sentence and connect the paragraph's ideas directly to the thesis

Conclusion

Use new words to restate original thesis

BRIEFLY remind readers of major points of the argument

Answer the "so what?" question by suggesting any consequences, recommendations, predictions, and/or calls to action that stem from the paper's overall argument

Provide a note of finality by touching back on the hook that started everything
