Charles T. Onions, James Augustus
Henry Murray

Fat Like The Sun:

Sons and Lovers David Herbert Lawrence, 1922 Lawrence's first major novel was also the first in the English language to explore ordinary working class life from the inside. No writer before or since has written so well about the intimacies enforced by a tightly knit mining community and by a family where feelings are never hidden. For long Paul Morel is caught between his need for family and community and his efforts to define himself sexually and emotionally. Lawrence's powerful description of Paul's relationships makes this a novel as much for the beginning of the twenty-first century as it was for the beginning of the twentieth.

"A" New English Dictionary on Historical Principles Charles T. Onions, James Augustus Henry Murray, 1919

The Sun's Eye, 1989 This edition retains the mixture of prose and poetry that was a feature of the original book but includes a number of new selections alongside some of the more popular stories and poems in the original anthology. This new edition also brings one of the most widely used and long-lasting anthologies to a new generation of young readers. The Sun's Eye retains all its proven favorites but almost half the stories and poems are new, selected from the past 20 years' wealth of Caribbean writing. The Sun's Eye again includes its unique feature: Notes about the Writers prepared by each author specially for this book. In addition, at the request of many teachers, there are now questions at the end of each piece of writing to further the students' understanding and appreciation and to encourage their creativity. The centre illustration on the cover and many inside are by Caribbean artists.

Pocket Paleo: Breakfast Nell Stephenson, 2015-01-05

When it comes to eating paleo, trainer, nutritional consultant, and author of Paleoista Nell Stephenson knows that breakfast is one of the most challenging meals. It's the most important meal of the day, but why do so many of us have it all wrong? Skipping breakfast to save calories or because we don't have enough time does nothing other than increase our chances of making poor meal choices. And when trying to eat paleo, it can be a struggle to move away from old standards like cereal or oatmeal and still eat something easy to prepare but filling and healthy. So what does a good paleo breakfast consist of? The same thing any other meal does: vegetables, protein, and fat like soft-boiled eggs over spinach with some avocado and a side of berries, or even a five-minute well-balanced smoothie. By starting the morning off the right way, you'll set yourself up for sustained energy and focus day after day. POCKET PALEO BREAKFAST includes 50 recipes like sun-dried tomato and basil Sonoma omelets, bacon and melon roll-ups, breakfast Carpaccio, and Mexican fajitas. Building paleo breakfast basics: Tips for adventurous eating, kid-friendly modifications, eating on the run, and more.
