Fatal Recall Gary Omohundro,1994-02-01 The Tale of Terror Edith Birkhead,1921 A history of the thriller from myth and folk tale through Walpole and Mrs Radcliffe to Poe and Le Fanu Public Documents of Massachusetts Massachusetts,1878 The Chicago Medical Recorder ,1911 An Analysis of the complex plot of "Total Recall" Dirk Schmelz,2003-06-03 Seminar paper from the year 1994 in the subject Film Science grade B A University of Amsterdam language English abstract As the film Total Recall was released in 1990 critics were confused In their attempts to give a summary they all created different stories Some even figured out some failures in the plot and for some the story line was an enigma 1 Though there was a lot of misunderstanding about this film there was also a consensus on the kind of genre the film belonged to Fred Glass gave in his article Totally recalling Arnold the film Total Recall the label NBF New Bad Future which has to be understood as a subgenre of the fertile SF Science Fiction of the 1980 s NBF is defined as following NBF films tell stories about a future in the grip of feverish social decay While some posit a post nuclear barbarism as in the Mad Max trilogy most envision the world that will emerge without such an apocalyptic break with history The NBF scenario typically embraces urban expansion on a monstrous scale where real estate capital has realised its fondest dreams of cancerous growth The heroes go up against the corruption and power of the ruling corporations which exercise a media based velvet glove iron fist social control 2 Exactly these characteristics can be found in Total Recall In consequence it could be read as a film that is following these patterns which are founded in the 1980 s Science Fiction In this respect one could argue that Total Recall is a quite traditional movie But Total Recall offers something new through using cyberspace This world that is defined as virtual reality mixes all the patterns and norms of traditional SF and makes this film very special in its appearance As Paul Verhoeven says about his film For the audience every moment in the movie seems to be real But when you get to the next scene you can doubt the scene before yeah I m exaggerating because it would be really terrible to do that to an audience everybody would be driven crazy probably But every once in a while you realise that what you saw before should have been seen in a different way It was not reality or it was a misinterpreted reality 3 The narrative structure of this film is therefore extremely complicated It combines reality dreams and virtual reality Perceiving this film means having the choice between many narrations They all depend on the point of view the perceiver wants to take Relativity James Rice,1923
