

A glowing lantern with a warm, yellow-orange light emanating from its glass globe. The lantern is encased in a dark metal cage with several horizontal and vertical bars. The background is dark and textured, possibly a wall or a cave. The text "FEAR WITHIN" is written in a white, jagged, hand-drawn font on the right side of the image.

Fear Within:

Performing Fear in Television Production Siao Yuong Fong, 2025-10-01 What goes into the ideological sustenance of an illiberal capitalist democracy While much of the critical discussion of the media in authoritarian contexts focus on state power the emphasis on strong states tend to perpetuate misnomers about the media as mere tools of the state and sustain myths about their absolute power Turning to the lived everyday of media producers in Singapore this book poses a series of questions that explore what it takes to perpetuate authoritarian resilience in the mass media How in what terms and through what means does a politically stable illiberal Asian state like Singapore formulate its dominant imaginary of social order What are the television production practices that perform and instantiate the social imaginary and who are the audiences that are conjured and performed in the process What are the roles played by imagined audiences in sustaining authoritarian resilience in the media As argued in the book if audiences function as the central problematic that engenders anxieties and self policing amongst producers can the audience become a surrogate for the authoritarian state

Fear in the Medical and Literary Imagination, Medieval to Modern Daniel McCann, Claire McKechnie-Mason, 2018-05-19 This book is about an emotion constantly present in human culture and history fear It is also a book about literature and medicine two areas of human endeavour that engage with fear most acutely The essays in this volume explore fear in various literary and medical manifestations in the Western World from medieval to modern times It is divided into two parts The first part Treating Fear examines fear in medical history and draws from theology medicine philosophy and psychology to offer an account of how fear shifts in Western understanding from the Middle Ages to Modern times The second part Writing Fear explores fear as a rhetorical and literary force offering an account of how it is used and evoked in distinct literary periods and texts This coherent and fascinating collection will appeal to medical historians literary critics cultural theorists medical humanities scholars and historians of the emotions

Realism and Fear in International Relations Arash Heydarian Pashakhanlou, 2016-12-08 This book examines the fascinating story of how the chief architects of realism Hans Morgenthau Kenneth Waltz and John Mearsheimer dealt with some of the most pressing political issues of our time through the lenses of fear Pashakhanlou conducts the most comprehensive evaluation of their works to date comprising of a meticulous analysis of 400 of their publications As such this book is an invaluable resource for practitioners students and concerned citizens that seek to understand how three of the most influential International Relations scholars thought about the implications of fear at the global level In this important book the author gets to the heart of the underlying emotional condition on which so much rational political thought in International Relations is built By uncovering the role of fear within the modern classics of realism the book sheds light on the role that fear plays in producing otherwise rational decision making David Galbreath Professor of International Security University of Bath UK The role played by fear in Realist international theory is under explored and poorly theorised This book addresses this lacuna and provides a thorough and systematic analysis of the significance of fear in Realism In doing so Arash Heydarian Pashakhanlou makes a major contribution to International Relations theory and the emotional turn in the study of contemporary international politics Adrian Hyde Price Professor of International Politics Gothenburg University Sweden The Theology of Fear in Thomas Aquinas's Summa Theologiae Nathan Luis Cartagena,2024-05-23 The Theology of Fear in Thomas Aquinas s Summa Theologiae excavates and explores Thomas Aquinas s comparatively expansive theology of fear that he develops in the Summa theologiae Whereas many classify fear under a single category e g an emotion passion or sentiment Thomas specifies seven major categories of fear including the passion and gift of fear And while many classify courage as the lone virtue indexed to fear Thomas argues that courage and perseverance perfect it adding that a Spirit empowered gift of courage also perfects human fears so that human beings may attain and remain in blessedness A work in retrieval theology designed for Thomas and non Thomas scholars operating within the interactions of theology and psychology this book argues that understanding this theology s motivations internal coherence and merits is necessary for understanding Thomas s instruction for beginners in the Christian religion and its ongoing relevance for today The Moral Psychology of Fear Ami Harbin,2025-09-18 The Moral Psychology of Fear brings together contemporary philosophers to consider how fear can shape or compromise moral motivation and in particular the ways in which fear might motivate morally and politically troubling actions for individuals and communities While the topics addressed by the chapters vary widely the contributors share a commitment to analyzing the moral significance of fear for motivation action and responsibility in novel and creative ways Edited by Ami Harbin the volume is divided into four parts Part I authors lay the groundwork for new philosophical analyses of fear by establishing some theoretical considerations about the connection of fear to injustice and the scope of what kinds of experiences count as fear Part II turns to everyday experiences of fear like fear of missing out and fear of one s own death that can have surprising moral implications Part III delves into the way fears have been present in contexts of climate and public health crisis Part IV offers reflections on the complex position of fear in some of the most charged political issues facing communities migration political polarization violence and oppressive ideologies more broadly Happiness as foundation in forethought minus fearthought Horace Fletcher,1898 The Christian Life and Virtues, Considered in the Religious State Charles Gay (Bishop of Anthedon.),1878 In Re Prima Company ,1938 A Treatise on Crimes and Misdemeanors William Oldnall Russell,1877 The Guidance of Mental Growth in Infant and Child Arnold Gesell,1930 The Apocalypse Explained, According to the Spiritual Sense Emanuel Swedenborg,1871 The Sabbath Recorder ,1918 Buffalo Medical Journal and Monthly Review of Medical and Surgical Science ,1885 Bible studies: the Internat.
