Gaelic Cape Breton Step-Dancing John G. Gibson, 2017-07-04 The step dancing of the Scotch Gaels in Nova Scotia is the last living example of a form of dance that waned following the great emigrations to Canada that ended in 1845 The Scotch Gael has been reported as loving dance but step dancing in Scotland had all but disappeared by 1945 One must look to Gaelic Nova Scotia Cape Breton and Antigonish County to find this tradition Gaelic Cape Breton Step Dancing the first study of its kind gives this art form and the people and culture associated with it the prominence they have long deserved Gaelic Scotland's cultural record is by and large pre literate and references to dance have had to be sought in Gaelic songs many of which were transcribed on paper by those who knew their culture might be lost with the decline of their language The improved Scottish culture depended proudly on the teaching of dancing and the literate learning and transmission of music in accompaniment Relying on fieldwork in Nova Scotia and on mentions of dance in Gaelic song and verse in Scotland and Nova Scotia John Gibson traces the historical roots of step dancing particularly the older forms of dancing originating in the Gaelic speaking Scottish Highlands He also places the current tradition as a development and part of the much larger British and European percussive dance tradition With insight collected through written sources tales songs manuscripts book references interviews and conversations Gaelic Cape Breton Step Dancing brings an important aspect of Gaelic history to the forefront of cultural debate

Dance of the Ages Dr. Michael Shepard, 2018-04-20 My journey began as a university student Armed with a fresh encounter with God I set out on my destiny In fraternity with a few other like minded men I captured the vision of giving away what I had encountered I had lived primarily up to this occasion for myself I had unwittingly filled the insecurities the holes in my heart with pride and selfishness Gaining approval and performance orientation were unspoken mantras in my life However I was on a new trek It was all about loving others helping serving and reaching people The Great Commission became my great obsession My pursuit was vigorous yet over time it left me drained of vigor I found myself in a strange uncharted place within I grasped for new vitality in my God life I found and apprehended a new handle in my life It was a new corridor I found new energy in the quest of seeking after God and loving God I became a God chaser I saw the priority of being a God seeker rather than a people seeker The flames of my God life were fanned After several years of traveling this route to my amazement my flame began to burn out The battery of my emotions and will were drained in a way I had experienced before I wilted in the race of running with the Great Commission I became heavy carrying the weight of being a God chaser Why was my soul gas tank low Weren't these honorable pursuits I had loved myself others and then God How then shall I go forward with my God life Let's relook at the road map and recalibrate the compass Come take a journey with me
