Fear Of Subways:

Fear City Cinema Roger A. Salerno, 2022-04-12 This book studies a grouping of films set in New York City between 1965 and 1995 reflecting a town besieged by rampant criminality social distress and physical decay Fear City is a term the NYPD used to label New York as a frightening environment incapable of securing the safety of its residents This book not only deals with the social problems evident in New York during this period but also provides a study of how independent filmmakers were able to capture unsettling urban imagery capitalizing on feelings of paranoia and dread The author explores how the tone of these films reflects upon the anti urbanism that led to the War on Crime the mass exodus of working class people from the city and mass incarceration of young Black men Crime, Fear, and the New York City Subways Dennis Kenney, 1987 This book is a welcome study of the impact of citizen action on crime and on the fear of crime The author obtained the consent and cooperation of the Guardian Angels to use their activities in Harlem and the Bronx as a model in determining the effectiveness of such operations In addition on site interviews were conducted with 2 700 nighttime subway riders making this work the first substantial study of passenger attitudes and fears Contradicting many previously held beliefs these data show that actual incidents of subway crime are remarkably low and that fear of crime among nighttime riders while high is not exceptional when compared to fear previously found in above ground settings Moreover the activities of the Guardian Angels were found to have no apparent effect on crime or on overall fear and did not increase the willingness of passengers to help one another
