Golden Goa:

Goa's Bom Jesus as Visual Culture Vishvesh Prabhakar Kandolkar, 2024-11-27 This book chronicles the visual history of the Basilica of Bom Jesus one of the longest surviving churches from Goa's Portuguese colonial era. In the sixteenth century this baroque church in Old Goa was constructed to house the sacred relics of St Francis Xavier and is emblematic of Goa Dourada or Golden Goa. Despite their early modern origins monuments like the Basilica continue to influence visual culture that pertains to Goa. Accordingly this book uncovers the traces of architectural images of Goa's sixteenth and seventeenth century monuments and conducts a genealogical study of how uses of religious architecture shift over time. Thus even as the Basilica originally functioned to portray or recall a grand empire by evoking the notion of Goa Dourada its iconicity has been employed in marking Goa's difference from the rest of India thereafter. By employing an analysis of historical texts illustrations photography film and pageantry this volume demonstrates how the image of the Basilica has been employed to create a discourse on Goan identity. In fact right from the colonial period when Goa was heralded as the Rome of the East to the post Portuguese period when Goa became an idyllic destination for leisure tourism architectural images of Bom Jesus have been central in shaping Goa's identity. Goa's Bom Jesus as Visual Culture will be useful to students and educators in the fields of architecture history anthropology sociology history of architecture and colonial postcolonial studies. Finally the long history of a single monument that the book documents highlights how Goans have been shaping their unique culture. At the same time as Goans imbibed Portuguese and other European influences they also domesticated and remade such colonial heritage in South Asian fashion and in turn contributed to global aesthetics.

Urban Utopias Tereza Kuldova, Mathew A. Varghese, 2017-03-09 This book brings anthropologists and critical theorists together in order to investigate utopian visions of the future in the neoliberal cities of India and Sri Lanka. Arguing for the priority of materiality in any analysis of contemporary ideology the authors explore urban construction projects special economic zones fashion ramps films archaeological excavations and various queer spaces. In the process they reveal how diverse co-existing utopian visions are entangled with local politics and global capital and show how these utopian visions are at once driven by visions of excess and by increasing expulsions. It's a dystopia already in the making one marred by land grabs and forced evictions rising inequality and the loss of urbanity and civility.

Cultural Labour and Contemporary World Literatures in Portuguese Carlos Garrido Castellano, 2024-11-25 This book examines the evolution of contemporary narrative in Portuguese from the point of view of cultural labour. The main objective of this volume is to analyse the panorama of contemporary literary fiction in Portuguese under the prism of the economization of cultural creativity and the expansion of neoliberal understanding of creative subjectivity and self-realization. Assuming that neoliberalism still constitutes a haunting presence that becomes present in ways that are far from universal and homogeneous and that are shaped by coloniality this book expands the debates on cultural labour and literary materialisms beyond European and North American contexts. Dealing with contemporary literary production from Brazil Portugal Angola Mozambique Cabo Verde Macau Canada and Goa the volume also tries to reimagine issues of cultural labour and the expansion of artistic modes of self definition from the point of view of contemporary literary production in Portuguese
