Sentencing Guidelines and Commissions Julian V. Roberts, Arie Freiberg, Rhys Hester, 2025-07-30 In Sentencing Guidelines and Commissions Julian V Roberts Arie Freiberg and Rhys Hester synthesize existing literature on commissions and guidelines identify key issues and problems and clarify the future of commissions and guidelines since the creation of the first commissions in 1980 Drawing upon almost fifty years of additional developments and accumulated research on guidelines commissions and councils the authors explore the benefits of sentencing councils and commissions and sentencing guidelines Further the authors look back to the cumulative experience since the first guidelines were created and propose model regimes for legislatures to consider based on the American English and Australian approaches The English Sentencing System Rupert Cross, 1971 Handbook on Sentencing Policies and Practices in the 21st Century Cassia Spohn, Pauline Brennan, 2019-06-14 Sentencing Policies and Practices in the 21st Century focuses on the evolution and consequences of sentencing policies and practices with sentencing broadly defined to include plea bargaining judicial and juror decision making and alternatives to incarceration including participation in problem solving courts This collection of essays and reports of original research explores how sentencing policies and practices both in the United States and internationally have evolved explores important issues raised by guideline and non guideline sentencing and provides an overview of recent research on plea bargaining in the United States Australia and the United Kingdom Other topics include the role of criminal history in sentencing the past and future of capital punishment strategies for reducing mass incarceration problem solving courts and restorative justice practices Each chapter summarizes what is known identifies the gaps in the research and discusses the theoretical empirical and policy implications of the research findings The volume is grounded in current knowledge about the specific topics but also presents new material that reflects the thinking of the leading minds in the field and that outlines a research agenda for the future This is Volume 4 of the American Society of Criminology's Division on Corrections and Sentencing handbook series Previous volumes focused on risk assessment disparities in punishment and the consequences of punishment decisions The handbooks provide a comprehensive overview of these topics for scholars students practitioners and policymakers Punishment and Politics Michael Tonry, 2012-12-06 Labour has embarked upon a root and branch remaking of the criminal justice system in England and Wales with a mass of new legislation implemented or planned It has ensured a continuously high profile for criminal justice issues and they have been at the centre of wider political discourse Yet the basis and evidence on which these reforms are being introduced is both uncertain and highly controversial Despite spending tens of millions of pounds of research into the criminal justice system in the name of evidence based policy evidence has counted only in relation to low level technocratic issues On the big issues the clear weight of evidence points in opposite directions to those which the government has taken The primary drivers of recent policies have rather been the emulation of recent USA policies at a time when these are now being abandoned in the USA

because they have been shown to be ineffective and a media driven agenda with a focus on conspicuous crime prevention which have had the effect of heightening rather than assuaging public fears and concerns This provocative yet authoritative book seeks to expose and to unravel what has really driven the making of criminal justice policy in the UK It will be essential reading for anybody interested in knowing what is going on in criminal justice and why it is so central to political debate more generally
