Green Memories:

A Thematic Concordance of Julien Green's Journal Kathryn Eberle Wildgen, 1994 Half-Blown Rose Leesa Cross-Smith, 2022-05-31 An irresistible story of a woman remaking her life after her husband's betrayal leads to a year of travel art and passion in Paris from the award winning author of This Close to Okay Vincent having grown up as the privileged daughter of artists has a lovely life in many ways At forty four she enjoys strolling the streets of Paris and teaching at the modern art museum she has a vibrant group of friends and she's even caught the eye of a young charismatic man named Loup But Vincent is also in Paris to escape a painful betrayal her husband Cillian has published a bestselling book divulging secrets about their marriage and his own past hinting that when he was a teenager he may have had a child with a young woman back in Dublin before he moved to California and never returned Now estranged from her husband Vincent has agreed to see Cillian again at their son's wedding the following summer but Loup introduces new complications Soon they begin an intense affair and somewhere between dinners made together cigarettes smoked in the moonlight hazy evenings in nightclubs and long starry walks along the Seine Vincent feels herself loosening and blossoming In a journey that is both transportive and intimate Half Blown Rose traverses Paris art travel liminal spaces and the messy complexities of relationships and romance with excerpts from Cillian's novel playlists and journal entries woven throughout As Cillian does all he can to win her back Vincent must decide what she wants and who she will be Up from the Depths Aaron Sachs, 2022-06-07 Finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award in Biography A double portrait of two of America's most influential writers that reveals the surprising connections between them and their uncanny relevance to our age of crisis Up from the Depths tells the interconnected stories of two of the most important writers in American history the novelist and poet Herman Melville 1819-1891 and one of his earliest biographers the literary critic and historian Lewis Mumford 1895-1990 Deftly cutting back and forth between the writers Aaron Sachs reveals the surprising resonances between their lives work and troubled times and their uncanny relevance in our own age of crisis The author of Moby Dick was largely forgotten for several decades after his death but Mumford helped spearhead Melville's revival in the aftermath of World War I and the 1918-1919 flu pandemic when American culture needed a forebear with a suitably dark vision As Mumford's career took off and he wrote books responding to the machine age urban decay world war and environmental degradation it was looking back to Melville's confrontation with crises such as industrialization slavery and the Civil War that helped Mumford to see his own era clearly Mumford remained obsessed with Melville ultimately helping to canonize him as America's greatest tragedian But largely forgotten today is one of Mumford's key insights that Melville's darkness was balanced by an inspiring determination to endure Amid today's foreboding over global warming racism technology pandemics and other crises Melville and Mumford remind us that we've been in this struggle for a long time To rediscover these writers today is to rediscover how history can offer hope in dark times Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham, 1921 EMDR-Sandtray-based
