Converts Melanie McDonagh, 2026-01-06 Why did Catholicism attract so many unlikely converts in Britain during the twentieth century The twentieth century is understood as an era of growing inexorable secularism yet in Britain between the 1890s and the 1960s there was a marked turn to Rome In the first half of the century Catholicism became an intellectual and spiritual fashion attracting more than half a million converts including fascinating artists writers and thinkers What drew these men and women to join the church and what difference did conversion make to them Melanie McDonagh examines the lives of these notable converts from the perspective of their faith For the Decadent circle of Aubrey Beardsley and Oscar Wilde who converted on his deathbed artists such as Gwen John and David Jones the philosopher Elizabeth Anscombe and novelists including G K Chesterton Graham Greene Evelyn Waugh and Muriel Spark Catholicism offered stability in increasingly febrile times McDonagh explores their lives and influences the reaction to their conversions and the priests who initiated them into their faith

The Mirror and the Palette Jennifer Higgie, 2021-10-05 A dazzlingly original and ambitious book on the history of female self portraiture by one of today's most well respected art critics Her story weaves in and out of time and place She's Frida Kahlo Lo's Mailou Jones and Amrita Sher Gil en route to Mexico City Paris or Bombay She's Suzanne Valadon and Gwen John craving city lights the sea and solitude she's Artemisia Gentileschi striding through the streets of Naples and Paula Modersohn Becker in Worpswede She's haunting museums in her paint stained dress scrutinising how El Greco or Titian or Van Dyck or C zanne solved the problems that she too is facing She's railing against her corsets her chaperones her husband and her brothers she's hammering on doors dreaming in her bedroom working day and night in her studio Despite the immense hurdles that have been placed in her way she sits at her easel picks up a mirror and paints a self portrait because as a subject she is always available Until the twentieth century art history was in the main written by white men who tended to write about other white men The idea that women in the West have always made art was rarely cited as a possibility Yet they have and of course continue to do so often against tremendous odds from laws and religion to the pressures of family and public disapproval In The Mirror and the Palette Jennifer Higgin introduces us to a cross section of women artists who embody the fact that there is more than one way to understand our planet more than one way to live in it and more than one way to make art about it Spanning 500 years biography and cultural history intertwine in a narrative packed with tales of rebellion adventure revolution travel and tragedy enacted by women who turned their back on convention and lived lives of great resilience creativity and bravery
