Half A Sky:

Half the Sky Nicholas D. Kristof, Sheryl WuDunn, 2009-09-08 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A passionate call to arms against our era's most pervasive human rights violation the oppression of women and girls in the developing world From the bestselling authors of Tightrope two of our most fiercely moral voices With Pulitzer Prize winners Nicholas D Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn as our guides we undertake an odyssey through Africa and Asia to meet the extraordinary women struggling there among them a Cambodian teenager sold into sex slavery and an Ethiopian woman who suffered devastating injuries in childbirth Drawing on the breadth of their combined reporting experience Kristof and WuDunn depict our world with anger sadness clarity and ultimately hope They show how a little help can transform the lives of women and girls abroad That Cambodian girl eventually escaped from her brothel and with assistance from an aid group built a thriving retail business that supports her family The Ethiopian woman had her injuries repaired and in time became a surgeon A Zimbabwean mother of five counseled to return to school earned her doctorate and became an expert on AIDS Through these stories Kristof and WuDunn help us see that the key to economic progress lies in unleashing women's potential They make clear how so many people have helped to do just that and how we can each do our part Throughout much of the world the greatest unexploited economic resource is the female half of the population Countries such as China have prospered precisely because they emancipated women and brought them into the formal economy Unleashing that process globally is not only the right thing to do it's also the best strategy for fighting poverty Deeply felt pragmatic and inspirational Half the Sky is essential reading for every global citizen
