Similarities and Difference Litigation before National Court for Damages Arising from Competition Breaches Competition Authorities Competition Policy in Europe European Commission,2002 EU Competition Law Ariel Ezrachi,2018-06-28 This book is designed as a working tool for the study and practice of European competition law It is an enlarged and updated sixth edition of the highly practical guide to the leading cases of European competition law This sixth edition focuses on Article 101 TFEU Article 102 TFEU and the European Merger Regulation In addition it explores the public and private enforcement of competition law the intersection between intellectual property rights and competition law the application of competition law to state action and state aid laws Each chapter begins with an introduction which outlines the relevant laws regulations and guidelines for each of the topics setting the analytical foundations for the case entries Within this framework cases are reviewed in summary form accompanied by analysis and commentary Praise for earlier editions This book should be in the library of every competition law practitioner and academic The summary of cases is first class But what makes it really stand out is the quality of the commentary and the selection of the material which includes not only the most important European judgements and decisions but also some of the leading cases from the US and European Member States Ali Nikpay Gibson Dunn Crutcher LLP The study of EU competition law requires the analysis and understanding of a number of increasingly complex European Commission and European Court decisions Through the provision of case summaries excerpts from the important passages and concise commentary linking these decisions to other key case law and Commission documents this unique and impressive book now in its fifth edition provides the student and practitioner of EU competition law with an extremely clear and useful introduction to these leading decisions Dr Kathryn McMahon Associate Professor School of Law University of Warwick This book is especially valuable for competition law specialists in Europe and abroad who are interested in the jurisprudence and policy of the European Union and its member states Familiarity with the European regime is essential for proficiency in competition law today and this volume provides an excellent foundation William E Kovacic Global Competition Professor of Law and Policy George Washington University Law School Former Chairman US Federal Trade Commission The Guide is an invaluable tool for both students and practitioners It provides a compact overview of the fundamental cases and highlights the essential problems in a clear and sharp analysis Dr Christoph Voelk Antitrust Practice Group McDermott Will Emery LLP Brussels European Competition Law:A Practitioner's Guide Lennart Ritter,2000-01-11 EC competition law is in a steady process of evolution Many important changes in legislation and enforcement emphasis have occurred since the First Edition appeared in 1991 These changes include the amendment of the merger control regulation the harmonization and simplification of the procedural rules the liberalization of hitherto monopolized markets the coordinated application of the competition rules by the Commission national authorities and national courts a reappraisal of how to deal with vertical restraints in the Commission s Green Paper The Council s first response and finally the Commission s White Paper on Modernization of the Rules Implementing Article 81 and 82 of the EC

Treaty as renumbered by the Amsterdam Treaty Even more fundamental changes in the structure of the Community And The dynamic forces of competition have caused a broader rethinking about competition rules which is ongoing as this Second Edition goes to press The enlargement of the Community monetary union The new tasks attributed by the Maastricht And The Amsterdam Treaties The continuing integration of national markets The globalization of the economy and increasing international cooperation among antitrust authorities are new challenges and opportunities which call for a modernization of competition rules and enforcement procedures To prepare a Second Edition of the Practitioner s Guide in such a period of change was a challenge a risk and a necessity The practitioner needs to be informed about how the EC competition rules are currently being applied in order to render meaningful practical advice to firms whose agreements transactions and conduct in the market place are governed by the competition rules The Second Edition attempts to meet this need

The Enforcement of EU Competition Rules by Civil Law Nina Bucan Gutta, 2014-11-04 Private enforcement of competition law in particular through damages actions is recently one of the highly debated topics in European competition law Arguments for private enforcement are based on the EU principle of effectiveness while existing national substantive and procedural regimes applicable to damages may be ill suited for the effective enforcement of EU competition law However the risk that the introduction of enforcement oriented measures into national law is incompatible with private civil law is often underestimated or neglected This book aims to reconcile both EU enforcement and private law perspectives through a detailed study of the English and Slovenian private law systems Research on the compatibility of EU competition enforcement oriented measures with the private law regimes in England and Slovenia is used to argue that some changes to private law based on proposals for effective enforcement go too far and risk undermining the integrity of the legal systems This book already takes into account the 2014 Directive on antitrust damages actions

The Consistent Application of EU Competition Law Adriana Almășan, Peter Whelan, 2017-01-04 In recent years there has been a decentralisation of the enforcement of the EU competition law provisions Articles 101 and 102 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union TFEU Consequently the national application of these provisions has become increasingly more common across the European Union This national application poses various challenges for those concerned about the consistent application of EU competition law This edited collection provides an in depth analysis of the most important limitations of and the challenges concerning the applicability of Articles 101 and 102 TFEU at national level Divided into five parts the book starts out by examining how the consistent enforcement of Articles 101 and 102 TFEU operates as a general EU competition policy It then discusses several recent landmark cases of the European Court of Justice on Articles 101 and 102 TFEU before proceeding to analyse certain additional unique jurisdictional challenges to the uniform application of the EU competition law provisions Subsequently it focuses on one of the most important instruments that can help to achieve the uniform application of EU competition law in cases handled by the national courts preliminary rulings Finally it provides selective examples of how Articles 101 and 102 TFEU are effectively applied at national level thereby providing additional input into how problematic the issue of consistent application of EU competition law is in practice
