European Difference:

India, Europe and the Question of Cultural Difference D. Venkat Rao, 2021-07-29 This volume critically engages with the question of cultural difference and the idea of living with diversity in the context of India and Europe It looks at certain essential European categories of learning such as art nature the human literature relation philosophy and the humanities and analyses texts from Sanskrit language through Telugu resources to argue that categories like prakriti loka jati dharma karma sahitya kala etc cannot be conflated with conceptual formations such as nature world caste religion sanctioned action literature and art respectively The book questions and unravels the efficacy of European concepts theories and interpretive frames in understanding Indian reflective traditions and cultural forms It also lays the groundwork for reorienting teaching and research in universities in the humanities on the basis of key cultural differences By focusing on major themes in the humanities discourse and their limitations the work engages with the writings of Heidegger Derrida and Agamben among others from radically new vantage points of Sanskrit Indian reflective traditions and challenges prevailing ideas about Indian art literature and culture Part of the Critical Humanities Across Cultures series this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of Indian languages and literature comparative literature art and aesthetics postcolonial studies cultural and heritage studies philosophy political philosophy comparative philosophy Sanskrit studies India studies South Asian studies Global South studies and for those working on education in the humanities human sciences Domestic Contestation of the European Union Sara B. Hobolt, Toni Rodon, 2021-06-29 This book examines how Europe wide issues such as immigration cross national redistribution and further European integration have reshaped electoral democracy and party competition across Europe After decades of scholars and commentators bemoaning the limited politicization of the EU nationally European issues have come to dominate domestic electoral politics From the Eurozone crisis to the struggle of dealing with growing numbers of migrants and refugees entering Europe EU wide issues now occupy a salient part of the domestic political debate This book examines what drives public opinion towards some of the key Europe wide issues of the day and how these EU issues shapes electoral behaviour and party competition It brings together leading scholars from different fields to explore what shapes preferences towards Europe wide policy issues how they influence electoral behaviour and party fortunes and what the implications are for the quality of European democracy Overall this book deepens our understanding of the state of European democracy domestically in an era in which national and Europe wide problems and policy solutions are inextricably linked The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of European Public Policy Pressures for Reform in the East European Economies, 1989 Popular Cinemas of Europe Dimitris Eleftheriotis, 2001-01-01 This book challenges the established conceptual and historical paradigm in Anglo American film studies that perceives European cinema as essentially high art Through a study of the specific contexts in which popular European films are produced distributed and exhibited the book proposes new analytical and critical frameworks for their

Deconstructing "Ideal Power Europe" Münevver Cebeci, 2018-12-31 Deconstructing Ideal Power Europe The EU and Arab Change criticizes the dominant discourse on European foreign policy which represents the EU as a force for good in world politics Using a poststructuralist approach it deconstructs the EU s representation as an ideal power through an analysis of European foreign policy on the Southern Mediterranean before and after the Arab uprisings In this endeavor it displaces three major discourses which construct the EU as ideal the postmodern and post sovereign EU the EU as a model a virtuous example and the EU as a normative power discourses The major argument of the book is that the ideal power Europe meta narrative is especially produced and reproduced in the EU s approach towards the Southern Mediterranean and it manifests itself through the rhetoric of responsibility and universality in the aftermath of the Arab uprisings The book also provides an analysis of how the ideal power Europe meta narrative feeds into and legitimizes European governmentality in the world in general and in the case of the Southern Mediterranean after the Arab uprisings in particular Arguing that the depiction of the EU as postmodern post sovereign as a model an exemplar and as a normative power pertains to the representation of a regulatory ideal it elucidates how the EU pursues hegemonic practices in the Southern Mediterranean It further manifests how the EU s governmentality is marked by a securitized depoliticizing and technocratic approach which feeds into and gets legitimized by the dominant discourse on European foreign policy reproducing the EU s ideal identity vis vis its imperfect Arab other

Myths of Europe Richard Littlejohns, Sara Soncini, 2007 Myths of Europe focuses on the identity of Europe seeking to re assess its cultural literary and political traditions in the context of the 21st century Over 20 authors historians political scientists literary scholars art and cultural historians from five countries here enter into a debate How far are the myths by which Europe has defined itself for centuries relevant to its role in global politics after 9 11 Can Old Europe maintain its traditional identity now that the European Union includes countries previously supposed to be on its periphery How has Europe handled relations with the non European Other in the past and how is it reacting now to an influx of immigrants and asylum seekers It becomes clear that founding myths such as Hamlet and St Nicholas have helped construct the European consciousness but also that these and other European myths have disturbing Eurocentric implications Are these myths still viable today and if so to what extent and for what purpose This volume sits on the interface between culture and politics and is important reading for all those interested in the transmission of myth and in both the past and the future of Europe
