Fontanas Mirror:

Lavinia Fontana's Mythological Paintings Liana De Girolami Cheney, 2020-08-18 This volume investigates emblematic and art historical issues in Lavinia Fontana's mythological paintings. Fontana is the first female painter of the sixteenth century in Italy to depict female nudes as well as mythological and emblematic paintings associated with concepts of beauty and wisdom. Her paintings reveal an appropriation of the antique, a fusion between patronage and culture, and a humanistic pursuit of Mannerist conceits. Fontana's secular imagery provides a challenging paragon with the male tradition of history painting during the sixteenth century and paves the way for new subjects to be depicted and interpreted by female painters of the seventeenth century. Sagetrieb, 1990 Aurora, 2001 Zoom In, Zoom Out Marjorie Salvodon, 2007 In the context of the transformations that Europe is undergoing, this work attempts to serve as a testimony to the multiple ways in which European filmmakers are questioning the many borders of the continent. The films discussed here address the question of European identity, crossing geographic, cultural, linguistic, and aesthetic borders. Divine Mirrors Melissa R. Katz, Robert A. Orsi, 2001 Through a unique and stunning collection of paintings, sculpture, rare books, and works on paper, Divine Mirrors examines the complex relationship between sacred imagery and secular identity in the art of the Madonna. This magnificent work, born from a multi-year project that included a museum exhibition, scholarly symposium, and reinstallation of a segment of the permanent collection of the Davis Museum and Cultural Center at Wellesley College, features the work of such renowned artists as Il Pintoricchio, Mantegna, Munch, and Leger, alongside fresh, undiscovered masters and little-known works of art. The book's fifty catalogue entries range from a rare thirteenth-century panel painting to a specially commissioned artwork exploring the intersection of religion and modern life. This volume investigates everything from non-Western perceptions of European religious practices to the Virgin Mary's voice in musical composition. In the opening essay, "The Many Names of the Mother of God," noted scholar Robert A. Orsi considers why images of Mary offer contemporary Americans such a powerful visual experience. Unlike paintings and sculptures created solely for aesthetic contemplation, Orsi writes, images of Mary are more than just artistic representations; they become for us an embodiment of the Virgin Mother herself. Then, moving into the historical realm, editor Melissa R. Katz guides us on a twenty-century chronological tour that explores the intersection of art history and world history in representations of Mary. Katz's essay, "Regarding Mary: Women's Lives Reflected in the Virgin's Image," takes the elements of Marian iconography most relevant to the study of art and weaves them together to provide a guide for modern audiences to engage with the religious origins of our common artistic legacy. Filled with fascinating information, this important work requires no particular background in art history, religion, or the Bible. Readers of all levels will be rewarded with an in-depth encounter of a remarkable and complex figure. Self Portrait Anthony Bond, Joanna Woodall, Timothy J. Clark, L. J. Jordanova, Joseph Leo Koerner, 2005 This text celebrates the lives of artists and their unique perspective on themselves and their work. An impressive array of self-portraits is presented in this
