Final Cry:

The Politics of Race and Ethnicity in Matthew's Passion Narrative Wongi Park,2019-01-21 In Matthew's passion narrative the ethnoracial identity of Jesus comes into sharp focus. The repetition of the title King of the Judeans foregrounds the politics of race and ethnicity. Despite the explicit use of terminology, previous scholarship has understood the title curiously in non-ethnoracial ways. This book takes the peculiar omission in the history of interpretation as its point of departure. It provides an expanded ethnoracial reading of the text and poses a fundamental ideological question that interrogates the pattern in the larger context of modern biblical scholarship. Wongi Park issues a critique of the dominant narrative and presents an alternative reading of Matthew's passion narrative. He identifies a critical vocabulary and framework of analysis to decode the politics of race and ethnicity implicit in the history of interpretation. Ultimately, the book lends itself to a broader research agenda: the destabilization of the dominant narrative of early Christianity's non-ethnoracial origins.

The Messiah of Peace Thomas E. Boomershine, 2015-06-09 The telling of Mark's story of Jesus as the Messiah of peace in the decades following the Roman Judean war announced a third way forward for Diaspora Judeans: other than warfare against or separation from the nations, Mark's Gospel was the story of the victory of a nonviolent Messiah who taught and practiced the ways of a new age of peace and reconciliation in contrast to the ancient and modern myth of redemptive violence. The Messiah of Peace is a performance-criticism commentary exploring a new paradigm of biblical scholarship that takes seriously the original experience of the Gospel of Mark as a lively story told to audiences rather than as a text read by readers. The commentary is correlated with the Messiah of Peace website, which features video recordings of the story in both English and Greek. Critical investigation of the sounds of the Markan passion-resurrection narrative reveals the identity of its original audiences as predominantly Judean, with a minority of Gentile nonbelievers. Hearing the passion-resurrection story was an experience of involvement in the forces that led to the rejection and death of Jesus, an experience that brought on the challenges inherent in becoming a disciple of the Messiah of peace.

Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Mohit Kumar Ray, 2006. Hastily written in pencil and serialized in Blackwood's Magazine in 1899. As The Heart of Darkness and later published in book form in 1902. As Heart of Darkness, the Sibylline charm of the novel has established it as one of the most important canonical texts of British literature. Critics have seen the book as an angry document on absurd and brutal exploitation. Guérard probably the greatest short novel in English. Karl An Annunciation of the Savage God. Cox An Adventure Story. An early instance of modern fiction. An existential novel and an early specimen of new historicism. The novel turns on a double paradox. Hillis Miller and addresses itself simultaneously to Europe's exploitation of Africa, the primeval human situation, an archaic aspect of the mind's structure, and a condition of moral baseness. Parry. But at the same time, the novel has elicited an angry reaction from Chinua Achebe, who calls Conrad a bloody racist. The present
