Excess Restraint Social Control Among:

Excess and Restraint Ronald Murray Berndt, 2003-01 Wives and Wanderers in a New Guinea Highlands Society Marie Olive Reay, 2014-12-15 Wives and Wanderers in a New Guinea Highlands Society brings to the reader anthropologist Marie Reay's field research from the 1950s and 1960s on women's lives in the Wahgi Valley Central Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Dramatically written, each chapter adds to the main story that Reay wanted to tell: contrasting young girls' freedom to court and choose partners with the constraints and violence they were to experience as married women. This volume provides readable ethnographic material for undergraduate courses in whole or in part. It will be of interest to students and scholars of gender relations, anthropology, and feminism in Melanesia and the Pacific. The material in this book, which Reay had written by 1965 but never published, remains startlingly contemporary and relevant. Marie Olive Reay was a social anthropologist who did research in Australian indigenous communities and in the Wahgi Valley in the Central Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Employed at The Australian National University from 1959 to 1988 when she retired, Reay passed away in 2004. In 2011, this manuscript was found in her personal papers, reconstructed and edited by Francesca Merlan, augmented here by an additional introduction by eminent anthropologist of the Highlands and of gender, Marilyn Strathern. Had this manuscript appeared when Reay apparently completed it in its present form around 1965, it would have been the first published ethnography of women's lives in the Central Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Its retrieval from Reay's papers and availability now adds a new dimension to works on gender relations in Melanesian societies and to the history of Australian and Pacific anthropology.

Love as Passion Niklas Luhmann, 2014-12-08 In this important book, Niklas Luhmann, one of the leading social thinkers of the late 20th century, analyses the emergence of love as the basis of personal relationships in modern societies. He argues that while family systems remained intact in the transition from traditional to modern societies, a semantics for love developed to accommodate extra-marital relationships; this semantics was then transferred back into marriage and eventually transformed marriage itself. Drawing on a diverse range of historical and literary sources, Luhmann retraces the emergence and evolution of the special semantics of passionate love that has come to form the basis of modern forms of intimacy and personal relationships. This classic book by Luhmann has been widely recognized as a work of major importance. It is an outstanding contribution to social theory and it provides an original and illuminating perspective on the nature of modern marriage and sexuality.

Going it Alone? Robert Tonkinson, Michael C. Howard, 1990 Examines the relationship between the government policies of self-management and the real experience in Aboriginal communities. Takes Aboriginal autonomy as its central theme. Includes biographical sketch, selected bibliography of anthropologists, the Berndts.
