Democratic Consolidation and Constitutional Endurance in Asia and Africa Tom Gerald Daly, Dinesha Samararatne, 2024-01-23 What factors drive constitutional change and sustain positive transformation How are democratic values recognised restored and preserved through constitutional change Democratic Consolidation and Constitutional Endurance in Asia and Africa is a well articulated response to the growing scholarly conversation on democratic backsliding and resilience Bringing together leading and emerging voices in constitutional law this groundbreaking new collection considers recent democratising events in Ethiopia The Gambia Malaysia Maldives Myanmar Sri Lanka and Thailand Across seven thematic chapters and seven case studies the volume provides analytical insight into central topics arising from these events including the role of political parties which depart from Western frameworks the often marginalised place of courts the centrality of civil military relations the explanatory power of constitutional culture and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic Offering a decolonising approach to constitutional law and democratisation studies this book will be of keen interest to scholars practitioners and policymakers alike It is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the relationship between democratic decay and institutional endurance and how such a relationship plays out in conditions of ongoing constitutional development Winning by Process Jacques Bertrand, Alexandre Pelletier, Ardeth Maung Thawngmung, 2022-08-15 Winning by Process asks why the peace process stalled in the decade from 2011 to 2021 despite a liberalizing regime a national ceasefire agreement and a multilateral peace dialogue between the state and ethnic minorities Winning by Process argues that stalled conflicts are more than pauses or stalemates Winning by process as opposed to winning by war or agreement represents the state's ability to gain advantage by manipulating the rules of negotiation bargaining process and sites of power and resources In Myanmar five such strategies allowed the state to gain through process locking in sequencing layering outflanking and outgunning The Myanmar case shows how process can shift the balance of power in negotiations intended to bring an end to civil war During the last decade the Myanmar state and military controlled the process neutralized ethnic minority groups and continued to impose their vision of a centralized state even as they appeared to support federalism Higher Education in Southeast Asia Lorraine Pe Symaco, 2024-11-26 Chapters delve into the role of higher education in each Southeast Asian country with discussions such as quality access and equity globalisation and internationalisation in Higher Education governance sustainable development social responsibility aid in education culture and religion in education and more New Answers to Old Questions Aaron Connelly, Shona Loong, 2024-06-26 Outside Myanmar the 2021 coup d'état has often been portrayed as the end of a hopeful period for the country In this Adelphi book however Aaron Connelly and Shona Loong argue that the Aung San Suu Kyi government that preceded it was a false dawn unlikely to fulfil the international community's aspirations for a stable peaceful and strong Myanmar Instead the movement opposing the 2021 coup holds much greater promise despite the bloody conflict that dominates the news today Connelly and Loong survey three fundamental relationships that have shaped Myanmar before and after the coup between the military and the state between the majority Burmese and ethnic minorities and between Myanmar and the world to explain how opposition to the coup has shifted all of them in a more liberal pluralist and cosmopolitan direction History of the Shan State Aung Tun (U Sai), 2009 The Shan are the largest of the many national ethnic groups residing in the Union of Myanmar After migrating from their early home in the Hwangho Yangtze region of China they settled in the eastern part of today's Myanmar primarily in the Shan Plateau around the first century AD The Shan dominated the political stage for a few centuries founding three historically important dynasties in the heartland of Myanmar at Pinya Sagaing and Inwa Shan history then merges with that of Myanmar until after World War II and Myanmar's independence from the British when the Shan initiated efforts to establish an autonomous state Sai Aung Tun deftly traces the cultural and political history of the Shan people from their origins to Myanmar independence and up to the constitutional crisis of 1962 His work highlights particularly the political affairs of the Shan state from 1946 to 1962 He details the Second Pang Long Conference of 1947 which brought about the historic agreement of all the nationalities of Myanmar to work together for independence He examines the significant role played by the Shan people in the debate on whether Myanmar should adopt a federal system of administration and their efforts to draft a new constitution He concludes with an account of the military coup of 1962 which effectively sabotaged the constitutional reform process a stalemate that still persists today Unique among Shan histories is the in depth analysis of the Kuomintang incursion into the Shan States in the early 1950s with its political military and economic consequences Sai Aung Tun has amassed a substantial amount of primary materials in the text proper including verbatim excerpts from conference interviews and speeches as well as a rich collection of official documents minutes and reports in the appendixes The historical critique of existing constitutional weaknesses will be of interest to those who advocate the drafting of a new constitution in Myanmar The pleas for unity and goodwill among the ethnic groups made by various leaders nearly half a century ago will resonate with readers today This comprehensive reference work will be an invaluable resource for all Shan scholars and Myanmar observers and an excellent addition to any reference collection on Southeast Asia
