

EGYPTIAN COSMOLOGY

According to the cosmology of Ancient Egypt, the world was once a formless, chaotic expanse of primordial waters, personified by the god Nun. From this, it, the first god emerged, among them Geb and Nut, who formed into the Earth and the Sky respectively, and gave birth to a multitude of other gods, such as Osiris, Isis and Set. The most important god in Ancient Egyptian cosmology was Ra, who was the god of the Sun, the giver of warmth and life. Every day, he travels through the sky in his solar barque. After the sun sets, it enters into the underworld, the domain of the god Osiris, and has to undertake a perilous journey, while being pursued by a monstrous serpent Apophis who threatens to devour the sun and return the world to chaos.
