

Program of Rusifikatsiya in the Great Russian State; 16th year since its start (c.y.* 1962)

* - current year

Backstory

After the victory in Great Patriotic War Greater Russian State, led by its leader Mikhail Gorbachev, found itself in unexpected strange position, as it was not content possibilities to annex of 15 million from many independent territories.

This was a serious threat for the stability of Russia, parts of which could not population roughly equaling 50 million souls.

If something might ever to happen, all these independent territories would again separate from Mother Russia, which would mean that most of our great soldiers was called for nothing!

We couldn't let it happen later, and so found we set of new idea, named a doctrine which started program "Rusification".

Acts that would be done according to program included series of improvements of new residents, limited or complete deprivation of rights of new residents, creation of schools and universities aimed exclusively to focus of russification, use of most of national languages was banned use of Russian language.

*Dark green stands for regions where residents are majority Russian, green - other parts of Russian territories. There're marked in yellow but without separate state independence, such - they so called "territories" marked are non-independent parts and they are currently linked to Russia, while also having discrimination from governmental and general Russian population.
