most personal of all Leigh Fermor's books catching up with young Paddy in the fall of 1934 and following him through Bulgaria and Romania to the coast of the Black Sea Days and nights on the road spectacular landscapes and uncanny cities friendships lost and found leading the high life in Bucharest or camping out with fishermen and shepherds in the The Broken Road such incidents and escapades are described with all the linguistic bravura odd and astonishing learning and overflowing exuberance that Leigh Fermor is famous for but also with a melancholy awareness of the passage of time especially when he meditates on the scarred history of the Balkans or on his troubled relations with his father The book ends perfectly with Paddy's arrival in Greece the country he would fall in love with and fight for Throughout it we can still hear the ringing voice of an irrepressible young man embarking on a life of adventure
