This grammar of the conservative Phedappe dialect of Limbu contains a description of the phonology, morphology and syntax, as well as tables of regular and irregular verbal conjugations, a Limbu-English dictionary and a corpus of morphologically analysed Limbu texts with English translation. These texts include oral traditions and myths as well as transcriptions of actual conversations. An account of the Limbu literary tradition is given along with an exposition of the Kiranti script, which was devised in the early 18th century.
