Growing Up Italian:

Growing up Italian Australian Virginia Moschella, 2014-01-28 Growing Up Italian Australian is a collection of funny tales that has no qualms about parodying my Nonni my childhood Sicilian morals and archaic Sicilian traditions in contemporary Australian society These comical parodies are dedicated to my Nonna who turned ninety and to the memory of my Nonno

The Other Side: Growing up Italian in America Vincent Panella, 2012-05-02 The Other Side is a sensitive candid portrait of an immigrant culture from a third generation perspective Vincent Panella portrays his family in Italian villages and American neighborhoods and what emerges is a critical but loving view of the Italian American experience its cloying love intense frugality obsession with security and its strong sense of family cohesion He writes of his boyhood in Queens New York his father's efforts to shape his life and of the fact that to be a member of an Italian family is never to be simply yourself The Other Side is also Vincent Panella's personal journey from rejection of his family to a realization that he cannot escape or deny his origins This final recognition emerges after an extended visit to Italy where he comes to know those in his family who remained behind Thus Vincent Panella has written a book of journeys a family's journey from southern Italy to Hell's Kitchen and the New York suburbs a young man's journey to a sense of identity The story is given an added dimension by the author's wife Susan Sichel Through her own photographs and through her selection of photographs from family albums Ms Sichel further evokes the life and times of three generations of an immigrant family

Echoes of Growing Up Italian Gina Valle, 2024-04-01 What you will find in Echoes of Growing up Italian are accounts of the immigrant experience as told through the eyes of women The Italian diaspora is one of the most significant of the 20th century with a far reaching impact in the Americas Australia and Northern Europe The Italian immigration narrative is a universal one The stories in this book of the Italian woman in North America and how she learned to survive as she lived with two cultures in her heart and home This collection provides the reader with a candid glimpse into the lives of fifteen women from across North America some were born and raised in Italy while some have only been there on holidays some are mothers and grandmothers and some are single some only know a few words of Italian while others are fluent but we all have a discerning perspective on what it means to live with two cultures

Playing with Food Delia Chiaro, Debra Aarons, 2026-02-03 Playing with Food Language Humor and Disgust is the first book to explore the interplay of food humor and disgust in multimodal media Chiaro and Aarons note that whenever food and comedy intersect disgust is rarely far behind Grounded in the theoretical framework of Carnival the authors analyze the affective cognitive and corporeal responses to food highlighting the central role of humor both in the way we talk about food and in our perception of the body and disgust Through a rich array of texts from everyday language and literature to video advertising music politics and beyond this book advances a comprehensive examination of the wider notion of taste With diverse detailed case studies and an accessible lively style Playing with Food is an invaluable resource for students and researchers of Linguistics Humor Studies Food Studies Psychology Media Studies Social

 White Studies Looking Behind the Mirror* numerous thinkers including Toni Morrison Eric Foner Peggy McIntosh Andrew Hacker Ruth Frankenberg John Howard Griffin David Roediger Kathleen Heal Cleaver Noel Ignatiev Cherrie Moraga and Reginald Horsman attack such questions as How was whiteness invented and why How has the category whiteness changed over time Why did some immigrant groups such as the Irish and Jews start out as nonwhite and later became white Can some individual people be both white and nonwhite at different times and what does it mean to pass for white At what point does pride in being white cross the line into white power or white supremacy What can whites concerned over racial inequity or white privilege do about it Science and pseudoscience are presented side by side to demonstrate how our views on whiteness often reflect preconception not fact For example most scientists hold that race is not a valid scientific category genetic differences between races are insignificant compared to those within them Yet the one drop rule whereby those with any nonwhite heritage are classified as nonwhite persists even today As the bell curve controversy shows race concepts die hard

 Stefancic expressly offer critical white studies as the next step in critical race theory In focusing on whiteness not only do they ask nonwhites to investigate more closely for what it means for others to be white but also they invite whites to examine
