The Political Economy of Development Berch Berberoglu, 1992-01-01 This book focuses on the role of the state in economic development in a variety of Third World settings through an in depth analysis of the past several decades Berberoglu examines three major alternative development theories developmentalism dependency and neo Marxist He then critically analyzes these theories and their variants to set the stage for a detailed examination of various development paths Two paths of capitalist development are contrasted the export oriented neo colonial model and the import substituting state capitalist model The role of the state in each of these alternatives is discussed in the context of the balance of class forces Berberoglu also provides case studies of Turkey Tanzania Peru and India countries in which the state played a significant role in the development process In each case he demonstrates that the process of state capitalist development inevitably leads to neo colonialism This export oriented path ties Third World countries to centers of world capitalism with all the consequent contradictions that such a linkage entails The book outlines the class nature of these contradictions on a global scale and maps out the balance of class forces and struggles the role of the state and the resultant revolutionary developments that are part of the process of social change and transformation now under way in many Third World countries Also included is an appendix highlighting the need for a class centered approach in development studies Proceedings of the 1987 Academy of Marketing Science (AMS) Annual Conference Jon M. Hawes, George B. Glisan, 2015-05-18 This volume includes the full proceedings from the 1987 Academy of Marketing Science AMS Annual Conference held in Bal Harbour Florida It provides a variety of quality research in the fields of marketing theory and practice in areas such as consumer behaviour marketing management marketing education and international marketing among others Founded in 1971 the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory research and practice Among its services to members and the community at large the Academy offers conferences congresses and symposia that attract delegates from around the world Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field Volumes deliver cutting edge research and insights complimenting the Academy s flagship journals the Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science JAMS and AMS Review Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science

The Tortuous Path of South Korean Economic Development Jaymin Lee, 2023-12-21 This book explains that South Korea has transformed itself from a developing to a developed country through a tortuous path Trade Openness and China's Economic Development Miaojie Yu, 2019-11-20 With the expansion of globalization international trade has played an increasingly significant role especially for developing countries As the largest developing country China has made a lot of efforts to integrate to the global market since its Open and Reform Policy in 1978 and has become the second largest economy in world So what is the effect of China s trade oriented strategy for the country and the world How did it improve the country s economic development These are some critical questions this book discusses This book utilizes classic Western economic models to examine how China s openness policies have affected the manufacturing upgrading and economic development of the country A large amount of micro level empirical evidence is added to support the conclusion Scholars and students in economics and business will benefit from this book Also it will appeal to readers interested in policy making and Chinese studies

The Dynamics of Asian Economic Development Hitoshi Hirakawa, Ferdinand C. Maquito, 2024-12-10 One feature of this book is the clarification of the development mechanism of Asia as a regional economy for over half a century based on an Asian Economy Within the Global Economy approach that goes beyond the single country analytical framework The development of emerging economies has caught the world s attention from the Newly Industrializing Countries or Newly Industrializing Economies of the 1980s to the BRICs entering this century General economics cannot clarify the internal mechanism of the changing of newly industrialized economies led by Asia This book clarifies such regional development structure by focusing on the direct investments of multinational firms and the importance of gradual changes of specific policies adopted by newly industrialized economies Moreover the book concretely deals with the US China trade war and China s Belt and Road Initiative BRI as a problem of Asian economies In so doing the book not only perceives the structural change of the global economy as a structural change from a US centric global economy of the twentieth century to a China centric one but also focuses on the birthing of a new growth frontier in the world economy under a crisis brought about by a war for hegemony between the US and China The investment initiative through China s BRI has prompted the investment competition between Japan and the US which has made even stronger the possibility of giving birth to a new economic frontier in Afro Eurasia Another feature is the consideration of various issues that confront Asian countries in their search for economic development using the Philippines as a case study The analysis of the study points to the importance of a shared growth perspective which is based on an Asian development model and discusses the challenge of overcoming the issues of the economic development model within the region At the same time this book studies the significance and new issues as a region of the economy and overseas policies of attention drawer China

The Industrialisation of Less Developed Countries Colin H. Kirkpatrick,F. I. Nixson,1983 Essays on direct foreign investment and industrialization trends in developing countries discusses theoretical background industrial policies for import substitution and export oriented industrialisation role of multinational enterprises in industrial growth and technology transfer impact on self reliance etc includes a cost benefit analysis of the textile industry in Nigeria and case studies of the Nigerian tyre rubber industry pharmaceutical industry in Colombia foreign capital in manufacturing in Brazil and Pakistan etc References Inward looking and export-oriented industrialization in developing countries and other studies Henry Spetter,1969

Studies on Developing Countries ,1975 Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard,2006 A comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Industry and Development ,1992

Industrialization and Development in the Third World Rajesh Chandra,2003-09-02 Developing countries have undergone significant industrialization in the last three decades Yet industrial growth reveals marked spatial inequalities in terms of both country and location The Newly Industrialised Countries have achieved spectacular growth in sharp contrast to many other countries of the South Industrial structure has changed moving away from labour intensive industries to more technologically advanced manufacturing Developing countries have had considerable success in penetrating developed country markets but they are now encountering more market restrictions The role of the government in the development of the economy is also changing Increasingly countries are turning towards export orientated industrialization strategies and privatization whilst their governments are emphasising their facilitative role Industrialization in the Third World Meine Pieter van Dijk,Henrik Secher Marcussen,1990 Developing Countries in the World Trading System Ramesh Adhikari,Prema-chandra Athukorala,2002 Contains ten papers which examine the achievements of the Uruguay Round of trade negotiations in reforming the world trading system and the challenges to the future reforms
