The Fall Revolution Ken MacLeod, 2001

Science Fiction, New Space Opera, and Neoliberal Globalism Jerome Winter, 2016-11-15 One of the few points critics and readers can agree upon when discussing the fiction popularly known as New Space Opera a recent subgenre movement of science fiction is its canny engagement with contemporary cultural politics in the age of globalisation This book avers that the complex political allegories of New Space Opera respond to the recent cultural phenomenon known as neoliberalism which entails the championing of the deregulation and privatisation of social services and programmes in the service of global free market expansion Providing close readings of the evolving New Space Opera canon and cultural histories and theoretical contexts of neoliberalism as a regnant ideology of our times this book conceptualises a means to appreciate this thriving movement of popular literature

The Modernization of China Rozman, 1982-08 In the Modernization of China an interdisciplinary team of scholars collaborate closely to provide the first systematic integrated analysis of China in transformation from an agrarian based to an urbanized and industrialized society Moving from the legacy of the Ming and Ching dynasties to the reforms and revolutions of the 20th century the authors seek reasons for China s inability to achieve rapid steady growth during a 200 year long struggle to modernize They examine the changing shape of Chinese society the role of the state in local politics military affairs economics the development of the educational system changes in family population and settlement patterns science and technology world views and foreign relations And they make frequent comparisons between China s experience with growth and that of two other latecomers to modernization Japan and Russia The result is a book that brings much needed clarity and perspective to our understanding of China and the way a great civilization attempts to meet the challenge of modernity
