Falling Awake:

Falling Awake Jayne Ann Krentz, 2005-10-25 A red hot suspenseful novel about a free spirited dream researcher and the gorgeous man who brings her dreams to life

Falling Awake Todd L. Blattner, 2016-11-29 Waking is a natural shift from unconsciousness to awareness Falling awake is a special case of waking where we relax out of old patterns ease out of resistance and surrender to the grace and love that are always present beneath the surface of appearances Although falling awake like falling asleep cannot be forced it can be prepared for Integrating perspectives from physical social and psychological sciences philosophy religion and energy awareness and calling on many years of experience as a teacher counsellor and Buddhist monk Blattner takes us step by step into an expanded understanding of the universe in which we live the mind body system that we call self and that which may lie beyond With gentleness and kindness Falling Awake shows us how to move beyond the programs and limiting belief systems that support the problems in our lives and awaken into an increasingly gentle joyful and expanded experience of the art of living

Live Artefacts Terence Cave, 2022-04-07 Literary artefacts the stories people tell the songs they sing the scenes they enact are neither a by product nor a side issue in human culture They provide a model of everything that cognition does They refuse to separate thought from emotion bodily responses from ethical reflection perception from imagination logic from desire Above all they demonstrate the essential fluidity and mobility of human cognition its adaptive inventiveness If we are astonished by the art of Chauvet or Lascaux as an early model of human cognition then we should be continually astonished by what literature is and does as it reaches beyond itself to reimagine the world This book argues that literary artefacts are quasi autonomous living entities fashioned to animate captured environments embodied people and other creatures ways of being and living that remain virtual They own a freely delegated agency that allows them to speak to listeners and readers present and distant present and future adapting themselves and their meanings to whatever cognitive environment they encounter Such an approach offers a way of linking a close attention to the specific properties of literary artefacts with the insights of cognitive anthropology and archaeology and thus of satisfying the conditions for a properly interdisciplinary understanding of literature It aims both to defend literary study against utilitarian and reductive arguments of all kinds and to argue that literary artefacts may give us new insights into how the mind and its indispensable substratum the brain functions in the human ecology

Dark Valley Observing Aladdin Ayesh, 2005 Dark Valley Observing is an act of observing people things and self It varies from the very dark over charged feelings such as The Long Road To Nothingness to the light hearted poems like Hello World It also includes the romantic almost silly poems like Smiling to the self contradictory poems like Falling Asleep

Falling Awake Dark Valley Observing shares one thing with Aladdin s first collection Blue Voice that is meaning is a feeling which the reader interprets There is no pre set agenda or pre coded message Instead it is a simple straight and sometimes lengthy talking of events thoughts reflections and imagery Dark Valley Observing also represents Aladdin s first attempts to experiment with form Aladdin uses capitalization indentation and mid sentence breaks to force a particular form of reading pauses and esthetic layout Some of the poems attempt to please the senses of sight and sound whilst others attempt to shock and force the reader to think Dark Valley Observing expects you as a reader to take on each poem and determine its meaning It expects you to dress each poem with your experience and reflect on that experience from the poem as well as reflecting on the poem from your experience Dark Valley Observing is a book of poetry to be adopted by the reader
