George Herbert Palmer

From Framework To Freedom:

From Slavery to Freedom S. B. Macy, 1910 A retelling of the Exodus from Egypt The Free, the Unfree and the Excluded Phillip Cole, 2019-07-09 First published in 1998 this volume forwards a particular theory of freedom and delves into the relationships between this view of freedom and issues of social justice Exploring positive and negative implications of the idea of freedom and its interaction with social justice programs Phillip Cole argues that the idea of freedom contributes substantially to the theory of social justice rather than drawing limiting boundaries around it Cole examines the concept of freedom in light of ability autonomy neutrality equality welfare and membership At heart his approach is based on the notion of entitlement and assumes that all people are of equal moral and political weight that all should receive the same consideration for the purpose of ethical and political questions Freedom of Information Law in China Yong Tang, 2025-09-30 This book assesses and critiques the legal right of access to government held information in China with a special focus on legislative history rationales statutory language and efficacy of the Open Government Information OGI Regulations enacted in 2007 by the Chinese government The book written by a former Chinese journalist who later became an American professor of journalism combines thorough examination and insightful commentary on relevant statutes and court cases with in depth interviews with Chinese legal scholars lawyers journalists and government officials For anyone with an interest in China s legal and informational systems in general and its freedom of information law in particular the book is a must read that not only explains why China s first freedom of information law failed so miserably when it was needed the most in a COVID 19 pandemic but also sheds light on the world s largest and most sophisticated propaganda apparatus that controls and manipulates flow of information in and outside of China Polyphony Embodied - Freedom and Fate in Gao Xingjian's Writings Michael Lackner, Nikola Chardonnens, 2014-07-28 Like artists important writers defy unequivocal interpretations Gao Xingjian winner of the Nobel Prize in literature is a cosmopolitan writer deeply rooted in the Chinese past while influenced by paragons of Western Modernity The present volume is less interested in a general discussion on the multitude of aspects in Gao s works and even less in controversies concerning their aesthetic value than in obtaining a response to the crucial issues of freedom and fate from a clearly defined angle The very nature of the answer to the question of freedom and fate within Gao Xingjian s works can be called a polyphonic one there are affirmative as well as skeptical voices But polyphony as embodied by Gao is an even more multifaceted phenomenon Most important for our contention is the fact that Gao Xingjian s aesthetic experience embodies prose theater painting and film Taken together they form a Gesamtkunstwerk whose diversity of voices characterizes every single one of them Agency, Freedom and Choice Constanze Binder, 2019-03-29 In this book Binder shows that at the heart of the most prominent arguments in favour of value neutral approaches to overall freedom lies the value freedom has for human agency and development Far from leading to the adoption of a value neutral approach however ascribing importance to freedom s agency value requires one to adopt a refined value based approach Binder employs an axiomatic framework in order to develop such an approach She shows that a focus on freedom s agency value has far reaching consequences for existing results in the freedom ranking literature it requires one to move beyond a person s given all things considered preferences to the values underlying a person s preference formation Furthermore it requires as Binder argues one to account only for those differences between choice options which really matter to people Binder illustrates the implications of her analysis for the evaluation of public policy and human development with the capability approach only if sufficient importance is ascribed to freedom s agency value can the capability approach keep its promises

Freedom of Expression and Religious Hate Speech in Europe Erica Howard,2017-07-28 In recent years the Danish cartoons affair the Charlie Hebdo murders and the terrorist attacks in Brussels and Paris have resulted in increasingly strident anti Islamic speeches by politicians This raises questions about the limits to freedom of expression and whether this freedom can and should be restricted to protect the religious feelings of believers This book uses the case law of the European Court of Human Rights to provide a comprehensive analysis of the questions whether legal prohibitions of religious hate speech violate the right to freedom of expression and whether such laws should be used to prosecute politicians and others who contribute to current debates when they use anti Islam rhetoric A well known politician who uses such rhetoric is Dutch politician Geert Wilders He has been prosecuted twice for hate speech and was acquitted in the first case and recently convicted in the second These prosecutions are used to illustrate the issues involved in drawing the line between freedom of expression and religious hate speech The author argues that freedom of expression of politicians and those contributing to the public debate should not be restricted except in two very limited circumstances when they incite to hatred or violence and there is an imminent danger that violence will follow or where it stops people from holding or manifesting their religion Based on this the author concludes that the European Court of Human Rights should decide if it is asked to do so that Wilders conviction for hate speech violates his freedom of expression A Short History of Anglo-Saxon Freedom James Kendall Hosmer,1890 Religious Freedom Under Scrutiny Heiner Bielefeldt,Michael Wiener,2019-12-20 Freedom of religion or belief is deeply entrenched in international human rights conventions and constitutional traditions around the world Article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights enshrines the right to freedom of thought conscience and religion as does the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which the United Nations General Assembly adopted in 1966 A rich jurisprudence on freedom of religion or belief is based on the European Convention on Human Rights drafted in 1950 by the Council of Europe Similar regional guarantees exist in the framework of the Organization of American States as well as within the African Union Freedom of religion or belief has found recognition in numerous national constitutions and some governments have shown a particularly strong commitment to the international promotion of this right As Heiner Bielefeldt and Michael Wiener observe however freedom of religion or belief remains a source of political conflict legal controversy and intellectual debate In Religious Freedom Under Scrutiny Bielefeldt and Wiener explore various critiques leveled at this right For example does freedom of religion contribute to the spread of Western neoliberal values to the detriment of religious and cultural diversity Can religious freedom serve as the entry point for antifeminist agendas within the human rights framework Drawing on their considerable experience in the field Bielefeldt and Wiener provide a typological overview and analysis of violations around the world that illustrate the underlying principles as well as the relationship between freedom of religion or belief and other human rights Religious Freedom Under Scrutiny argues that without freedom of religion or belief human rights cannot fully address our complex needs yearnings and vulnerabilities as human beings Furthermore ignoring or marginalizing freedom of religion or belief would weaken the plausibility attractiveness and legitimacy of the entire system of human rights Economica ,1924 Framework for Freedom, Fiscal Year 2023 - 2024 Florida. Governor (2019- : DeSantis),2023 Freedom of Association... International Labour Office,1928 Typical Recent Conceptions of Freedom Gertrude Carman Bussey,1917 The Problem of Freedom George Herbert Palmer,1911 The Problem of Freedom results from a course of lectures delivered in 1909 before the Lowell Institute of Boston Delivered without notes they were carefully reported and subsequently much revised Herbert offers here a fairly intelligible systematic and original survey of an intricate ancient and ever present problem Amazon com product desc Freedom and Purpose James Henry Dunham,1916 Anton Tchekhov Anton Pavlovich Chekhov,1927
