The Contest of Meaning Richard Bolton, 1992-02-25 Photography's great success gives the impression that the major questions that have haunted the medium are now resolved On the contrary the most important questions about photography are just beginning to be asked These fourteen essays with over 200 illustrations critically examine prevailing beliefs about the medium and suggest new ways to explain the history of photography They are organized around the questions What are the social consequences of aesthetic practice How does photography construct sexual difference How is photography used to promote class and national interests What are the politics of photographic truth The Contest of Meaning summarizes the challenges to traditional photographic history that have developed in the last decade out of a consciously political critique of photographic production Contributions by a wide range of important American critics reexamine the complex and often contradictory roles of photography within society Douglas Crimp, Christopher Phillips, Benjamin Buchloh and Abigail Solomon Godeau examine the gradually developed exclusivity of art photography and describe the politics of canon formation throughout modernism Catherine Lord, Deborah Bright, Sally Stein and Jan Zita Grover examine the ways in which the female is configured as a subject and explain how sexual difference is constructed across various registers of photographic representation Carol Squiers, Esther Parada and Richard Bolton clarify the ways in which photography serves as a form of mass communication demonstrating in particular how photographic production is affected by the interests of the powerful patrons of communications The three concluding essays by Rosalind Krauss, Martha Rosler and Allan Sekula critically examine the concept of photographic truth by exploring the intentions informing various uses of objective images within society Real Fantasies Patricia A. Johnston,1997-01-01 During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry His commercial work appeared regularly in VANITY FAIR VOGUE LADIES HOME JOURNAL and other popular magazines Patricia Johnston uses Steichen s work as a case study of the history of advertising and the American economy between the wars 13 color and 120 b w photos The Family of Man Revisited Gerd Hurm,Anke Reitz,Shamoon Zamir,2020-08-09 The Family of Man is the most widely seen exhibition in the history of photography The book of the exhibition still in print is also the most commercially successful photobook ever published First shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 1955 the exhibition travelled throughout the United States and to forty six countries and was seen by over nine million people Edward Steichen conceived curated and designed the exhibition He explained its subject as the everydayness of life and the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world The exhibition was a statement against war and the conflicts and divisions that threatened a common future for humanity after 1945 The popular international response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic Many critics however have dismissed the exhibition as a form of sentimental humanism unable to address the challenges of history politics and cultural difference This book revises the critical debate about The Family of Man challenging in particular the legacy of Roland Barthes s influential account of the exhibition The expert contributors explore new contexts for understanding Steichen s work and they undertake radically new analyses of the formal dynamics of the exhibition Also presented are documents about the exhibition never before available in English Commentaries by critical theorist Max Horkheimer and novelist Wolfgang Koeppen letters from photographer August Sander and a poetic sequence on the images by Polish poet Witold Wirpsza enable and encourage new critical reflections A detailed survey of audience responses in Munich from 1955 allows a rare glimpse of what visitors thought about the exhibition Today when armed conflict environmental catastrophe and economic inequality continue to threaten our future it seems timely to revisit The Family of Man Steichen,1989 Edward Steichen Christian A. Peterson,Edward Steichen,1984 A Life in Photography Edward Steichen,1963 American Exposures Louis Kaplan,2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole s propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen s Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover Vanity Fair 100 Years Graydon Carter,2013-10-15 Vanity Fair 100 Years showcases a century of Edward Steichen to create the first artistic rather than merely documentary fashion photographs a moment that is now considered to be a turning point in the history of fashion photography As fashion changed over the next century so did the photography of fashion Steichen s modernist approach was forthright and visually arresting In the 1930s the photographer Martin Munkcsi pioneered a gritty photojournalistic style In the 1960s Richard Avedon encouraged his models to express their personalities by smiling and laughing which had often been discouraged previously Helmut Newton brought an explosion of sexuality into fashion images and turned the tables on traditional gender stereotypes in the 1970s and in the 1980s Bruce Weber and Herb Ritts made male sexuality an important part of fashion photography Today following the integration of digital technology teams like Inez Vinoodh and Mert Marcus are reshaping our notion of what is acceptable not just aesthetically but also technically and conceptually in a fashion photograph This lavishly illustrated survey of one hundred years of fashion photography updates and reevaluates this history in five chronological chapters by experts in photography and fashion history It includes more than three hundred photographs by the genre s most famous practitioners as well as important but lesser known figures alongside a selection of costumes fashion illustrations magazine covers and advertisements *Acquisitions 1973-1980, George Eastman House International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House, Robert A.
