Ehipsecond World War Hc:

At the Centre of Whitehall J. Lee, G. Jones, J. Burnham, 1998-04-22 This authoritative text examines the arrangements at the centre of Whitehall for advising the British prime minister and Cabinet especially during the Thatcher and Major governments The traditional coordinating centre has shifted from the Treasury to the Prime Minister's Office and the Chief Whip's Office in Downing Street and to the Cabinet Office in Whitehall Exploration of the separate but interlinking contributions made by these three parts of the centre shows they form a flexible but not entirely adequate support for modern government

Rebels and whips Robert J. Jackson, 1968 The British Constitution in the Twentieth Century Vernon Bogdanor, 2004-06-10 This is the first scholarly survey of the British constitution in the twentieth century Indeed it fills a very real gap in the history of Britain during the last hundred years The book is a product of interdisciplinary collaboration by a distinguished group of constitutional lawyers historians and political scientists and draws where possible on primary sources Its evaluation of the recent constitutional reforms will be of particular interest This major interpretation of the constitution will remain authoritative for many years

Ministers of the Crown Rodney Brazier, 1997 In the first work of its kind Brazier successfully tackles the Herculean task of describing and evaluating contemporary Ministerial life and how it is affected by the law constitutional convention and political practice Ministers of the Crown provides a detailed and concise description of the legal and political position of Ministers and of their work within the contemporary British governmental system It covers the daily work of Ministers in their departments and collectively in government their benefits and pay as well as how politicians prepare themselves for office and the legal and other qualifications which are required for appointment Detailed coverage is given to Ministers as legislators how Ministers are required to exercise their legal powers and the position of Ministers as plaintiffs and defendants Finally the loss of office and its consequences is considered As a detailed assessment of Ministerial life this book is invaluable but Brazier's capacity to bring the Ministerial world to life using a wealth of contemporary and fascinating detail transforms a potentially dry subject

Constitutional and Administrative Law Neil Parpworth, 2012-04-05 Presenting wide ranging and accurate coverage of constitutional and administrative law this title is structured in a logical and practical way supporting students as they progress in the subject

The Churchill Coalition and Wartime Politics, 1940-1945 Kevin Jefferys, 1991 In this revisionist study Jefferys challenges many long held assumptions about British politics in the period between 1939 and 1945 Drawing on a range of unpublished sources he challenges the notion of consensus as a guiding principle of politics in the 1940s and argues that wartime coalition masked the continuance of profound disagreements about the future direction of economic and social policy

London and the Politics of Memory Stuart Burch, 2019-07-09 This book provides an original impassioned exploration of memory studies and the uses of the past in the present It capitalises on London's global appeal and Big Ben's iconic status Moving beyond this familiar facade the reader will journey around the hidden histories of Westminster's streets

squares and statues This tangible heritage supports a diversity of contested memories The rationale for this approach is that by linking theory with empirical examples it becomes possible to tackle complex issues in a grounded accessible manner Readers will be encouraged to use this case study as a framework for addressing the politics of memory in their own lives as well as in other places not just in Britain but around the world This book will be of interest to scholars and students from a wide variety of disciplines including but not limited to sociology culture and media studies English literature film and television studies global studies heritage studies history politics and human geography
