[With a Portrait and a Bibliography.] Folco Portinari,Giuseppe UNGARETTI,1967 Like Leaves in Autumn Carlo Pirozzi,Katherine Lockton,2015 Published to mark the first centenary of Italy's entry into the Great War Like

Leaves in Autumn features 21 original Italian poems by Giuseppe Ungaretti with new English translations by Heather Scott. These are set alongside 21 new poems by contemporary Scottish poets writing in response to Ungaretti and are illustrated with striking black and white artworks from the ARTIST ROOMS collection owned by National Galleries of Scotland and Tate. One of Europe's greatest modernist poets, Ungaretti was born and raised in Alexandria, Egypt, to an Italian family from Tuscany. From 1915 he served in the Italian infantry in the campaign against Austria-Hungary. It was a ferocious conflict fought in the mountains of Northern Italy in trenches dug out of Alpine rock. Thousands died, and Ungaretti's poems, written during pauses in the fighting, channel these horrific experiences. In addition to his grief and loss, these verses are shaped both by Ungaretti's sense of exile and by his intense life-affirming poetic sensibility. A century on, this anthology offers a creative interplay of recollection, translation, and new inspiration. Italian, English, Scots, and Gaelic voices mingle on these pages, and the artworks spark a dialogue between words and images, creating an alchemy of further meanings.

Likenesses Matthew Reynolds, 2017-07-05. Translation, illustration, and interpretation have at least two things in common: they all begin when sense is made in the act of reading; that is, where illustrative images and explanatory words begin to form. And they all ask to be understood in relation to the works from which they have arisen. Reading them is a matter of reading readings. Likenesses explores this palimpsestic realm with examples from Dante to the contemporary sculptor Rachel Whiteread. The complexities that emerge are different from Empsonian ambiguity or de Man's unknowable infinity of signification; here, meaning dawns and fades as the hologrammatic text is filled out and flattened by successive encounters. Since all literature and art is palimpsestic to some degree, Reynolds proposes this style of interpretation can become a tactic for criticism in general. Critics need both to indulge and to distrust the metamorphic power of their interpreting imaginations. Likenesses follows on from the argument of Reynolds's The Poetry of Translation (2011), extending it through other translations and beyond them into a wide range of layered texts. Browning emerges as a key figure because his poems laminate languages, places, times, and modes of utterance with such compelling energy. There are also substantial innovative accounts of Dryden, Stubbs, Goya, Turner, Tennyson, Ungaretti, and many more.

Sweet Thunder Vivienne Suvini-Hand, 2006. This book offers a detailed examination of the literary influences behind the experimental music of five twentieth-century Italian composers: Luigi Dallapiccola, Bruno Maderna, Luciano Berio, Giacomo Manzoni, and Armando Gentilucci.
