Glands Our Invisible Guardians:

Glands Our Invisible Guardians Michael William Kapp,2023-04-20 Every activity of Nature is within Cosmic Laws There are no miracles The author and the publishers hope to bring to the lay mind in simple language many of the truths now known to science and philosophy and thus pave the way for more truths and knowledge that may be woven into Wisdom Surely every thinking mind will realize the need for truths and knowledge It is only through these that wisdom may be attained Falsehood superstition and ignorance can never lead us to wisdom nor to moral mental and spiritual beauty There is no standing still in our evolvment We either progress or retrogress This law is Nature s edict not man s Man s evolving as far as he has is due to cosmic intuition or poetic genius that has driven him ever on and mostly upward All through the ages he has been seeking more light more power more happiness and more love Science is opening the doors to a more positive advancement for man It is proving that life s processes for man lie almost wholly within himself and are amenable to control and up building In the past man has been taught by exhortations by affirmation by superstition but now we have teaching by proven and demonstrated facts Science now knows that the building and evolvment forces within man operate almost wholly through the glandular structures of the body We hope to bring the known facts of the glandular activities to the reader so that he will understand them and thus be able to live a fuller and more beautiful life This volume is dedicated to all who seek more truth knowledge and understanding
