From Kamrad to Cologne. Wanderer Between Two Worlds Saral Sarkar, 2025-01-13 In his autobiography Saral Sarkar takes us along on a journey through his interesting and eventful life He is one of the few persons who experienced the first half of his life in a poor third world country India and the other half in a very developed European country Germany And he experienced these two countries intensively Unlike so many other immigrants he did not come to Germany for economic reasons but initially in the 1960s because of his love for the German language being trained there as teacher for German and then later in the 1980s he stayed there because of his love for his wife Maria Mies a famous German feminist and sociologist From an early age he was very interested in political issues and movements initially mainly from the left spectrum but later from the early 1970s on his concern for ecological issues came to the foreground The famous book The Limits to Growth from 1972 which influenced an entire generation and served as an important impetus for the ecology movement was also a turning point in his personal thinking He experienced the rise of the green movement and the Green Party in Germany at first hand but also left the Greens in disappointment in the second half of the 1980s But it was not only political activism that shaped his life From the 1980s onwards he became an increasingly prominent author on environmental and political issues with his two major works Eco Socialism or Eco Capitalism A Critical Analysis of Humanity's Fundamental Choices and The Crises of Capitalism A Different Study of Political Economy It is no exaggeration to say that he is one of the most important contemporary thinkers on eco political issues one who coined the term eco socialism in a consequent and clear way
