Qingyun Wu's work is a unique discovery in literary studies in the West Chinese utopian literature paired with its English counterparts form an original and valuable contribution to world literature In widely varying historical and cultural texts that span the last five centuries Wu analyzes the theme of female rule including a critique of patriarchy and emphasizing a vision for women To date Chinese utopias have been insufficiently explored and unavailable to Western scholars Wu's theories of the politics of female rule as seen in Chinese and English literature since the end of the sixteenth century are predicated on three significant changes that have taken place during those periods These include an outright rejection of rule by women to rule by women in the guise of men from individual to collective female rule and from an idealized matrilineality to anarchism by the female principle Works examined include Edmund Spenser's The Faerie Queen Luo Maodeng's Sanbao's Expedition to the Western Ocean Florence Dixie's Gloriana Charlotte Perkins Gilman's Herland Ursula K LeGuin's The Dispossessed Chen Duansheng's The Destiny of the Next Life Li Ruzhen's The Flowers in the Mirror and Bai Hua's The Remote Country of Women This critical view of the development of feminist utopias in both the East and West will be of interest to scholars of women's studies political science and anthropology as well as to those in literature for both the classical and modern periods
