Effective Language Learning Positive Strategies For Advanced Level Language Learning:

Effective Language Learning Suzanne Graham, 1997 This book investigates some of the learning processes of students of French and German as they begin language learning at an advanced level a stage which is frequently problematic By looking at the learning strategies employed by both successful and less successful language students the author elucidates some of the key cognitive and affective processes which facilitate advanced level language learning The implications of this for the classroom are discussed in detail leading to practical recommendations for learning and teaching strategies A central theme is the need to teach explicitly the proficient use of learning strategies and suggestions are made as to how this may be achieved in the language classroom

The Strategy Factor in Successful Language Learning Carol Griffiths, 2013-05-09 This book addresses fundamental questions regarding the relationships between successful language learning and strategy use and development according to learner situational or target variables It considers strategy effectiveness from an individual point of view and discusses pedagogical issues especially relating to teacher perceptions and training classroom and learner factors methodology and content The book begins by discussing underlying theoretical issues and then presents evidence from empirical studies in addition to presenting a quantitative view the book also takes a qualitative look at strategy use by individuals Rather than focusing on strategies divorced from the real world of the classroom this book explores the issues from the teaching learning point of view

Lessons from Good Language Teachers Carol Griffiths, Zia Tajeddin, 2020-04-30 What makes a good language teacher This up to date practical book addresses that question from a human perspective recognising that teachers are not just machines but have feelings needs and identities of their own As the twenty two topics of the chapters in this volume clearly indicate language teachers are complex individuals who are expected to have a range of personal qualities to be able to satisfy the needs of their students and to have the knowledge and skills to provide instruction in a range of language areas Not only that but all of these requirements are constantly changing The authors present new insights from the real teaching environment that will be an invaluable help to language teachers at all stages of professional development

Teaching Modern Foreign Languages at Advanced Level Norbert Pachler, 2002-11-01 Designed to complement Learning to Teach Modern Foreign Languages in the Secondary School this book focuses specifically on the skills and processes of teaching MFL at A and A S level in schools and colleges The book is divided into three sections the changing nature of A and A S level courses bridging the gap between GCSE and A level and planning teaching and assessment With chapters on learner independence teaching and learning grammar planning topics and programmes of work working with literature and vocational alternatives the book will be an essential text for all secondary MFL students and teachers

Learning Strategy Instruction in the Language Classroom Anna Uhl Chamot, Vee Harris, 2019-05-10 This comprehensive collection comprising both theoretical and practical contributions is unique in its focus on language learning strategy instruction LLSI The chapters written by leading international experts embrace both sociolinguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives The issues presented include different models of strategy instruction and how they can be tailored according to context and the learners age and attainment level The collection will be an important resource for researchers in the field both for its critical perspectives and its guidance on collaborating with teachers to design interventions to implement strategy instruction It also identifies key areas for research including the teaching of less studied groups of strategies such as grammar and affective strategies The book will prove equally valuable to language teachers through the provision of detailed teaching materials and tasks Those engaged in professional development whether pre or in service teacher education will find a wealth of concrete ideas for sessions courses and assignments

Learning to Teach Modern Languages in the Secondary School Norbert Pachler,Ann Barnes,Kit Field,2006-01-16 This book focuses on the key skills of teaching modern foreign languages A practical focus is underpinned by theoretical perspective and account is taken of national statutory frameworks

Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings Stella Hurd,Tim Lewis,2008-10-03 Language learning strategies have been a topic of research for roughly three decades Broadly speaking that research has focused on classroom tuition predominantly at secondary level

Increasingly however language learning occurs in independent settings whether at distance on Institution Wide Language Programmes IWLPs or in virtual environments Success in independent language learning is achieved by autonomous individuals with a capacity for self regulation Yet we still know relatively little about the specific means they use to learn effectively whether in terms of the affective strategies they employ to sustain motivation the metacognitive strategies required for planning monitoring and evaluating their learning or the specific cognitive strategies applied to difficult learning tasks These are all discussed and evaluated in Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997 German Teaching ,1996 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 1996" ,1996 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 The Indiana Foreign Language Proficiency Guide Center for School Improvement and Performance (Ind.).
