Efrat Shvily:

New Homes in Israel and the Occupied Territories Efrat Shvily, Ariella Azoulay, 2003 Anonymous deserted buildings have dominated the photographic work of Efrat Shvily since she began to frame Israel's architecture in her images in the early 1990s. The buildings so disconnected from their surroundings point to the problematic relationship between the Israelis and their land. Shvily's New Homes in Israel and the Occupied Territories is a series of black and white photographs of houses and neighborhoods which sometimes seem more like models than real buildings. In her desolate photos, Shvily does not make it clear whether the buildings were once inhabited and are now deserted, currently inhabited, or soon to be occupied. The series arose in reaction to the large number of new settlements that were realized in Israel in the 1990s. Perhaps because of the speed of these new developments combined with the fact that construction projects are used as a means to occupy territory, the people who live in these places seem estranged from the land that surrounds them, a state of being that Shvily captures in her photos. Efrat Shvily, 2003

Visions of Place Martin Rosenberg, J. Susan Isaacs, 2016 Visions of Place Complex Geographies in Contemporary Israeli Art explores Israel's history, society, culture through the diverse works of its contemporary artists. Issues related to the exhibition's central theme of geography, considered in the broadest sense, are some of the most pressing ones in the contemporary world. Curated by Dr. Martin Rosenberg, Professor of Art History, Rutgers Camden, and Dr. J. Susan Isaacs, Professor, Curator of Departmental Galleries, and Coordinator of Art History, Towson University, the exhibition presents 52 works by 36 Israeli artists in a variety of media, demonstrating the richness, complexity, and diversity of perspectives in contemporary Israeli art. □□□□□□, 1969

Death's Showcase Ariella Azoulay, 2001 An interdisciplinary exploration of the visual presence of death in contemporary culture. Strangers International Center of Photography, 2003 Presenting the works of 50 contemporary artists and photographers from around the world, Strangers explores the different roles the camera now plays in negotiating the boundaries between public and private life, trust and fear, intimacy and isolation. Accompanying the first recurring exhibition of its kind devoted to photography and related media at the International Center of Photography in New York, Strangers investigates the social world through images that have been created as a result of encounters with people unknown to one another. In addition to the more personal and psychological aspects of estrangement, the artists in Strangers also engage with the theme of globalization and diaspora, an especially timely subject in its geopolitical ramifications. Strangers includes illuminating biographical essays on each of the artists and their works, four original essays by ICP curators Brian Wallis, Christopher Phillips, Carol Squiers, and Edward Earle that explore the ever-evolving and prescient theme of strangers, and approximately 200 images generated in a variety of media, from traditional and digital processes to multimedia installations and video. Artists represented include Olivio Barbieri, Philip Lorca diCorcia, Luc Delahaye, Rineke Dijkstra, David Goldblatt, Bill Henson, Susan Meiselas, Shirin Neshat, John Schabel, and Joel Sternfeld, among others. Palestinian Cabinet Ministers 2000 Efrat Shvily, 2003 Before the beginning of the Second

Intifadah in 2000 Efrat Shvily an Israeli born photographer started work on the series Palestinian Cabinet Ministers portraits of the ministers of the Palestinian Authority Due to the continuing escalation of the conflicts in the West Bank and the Occupied Territories the series remains indefinitely incomplete Palestinian Cabinet Ministers can be understood as a companion to Shvily s series New Homes in Israel and the Occupied Territories also published this season by Witte de With which examines the relation Israelis have with the territory they share with other people But where the latter series questions Israel s love for the ground the former questions Israel s capacity to respect other people living on that same ground
