Frank Baum Horatio Alger Jr and Richard Harding Davis as well as unique journalistic examples including the children's page of the Chicago Defender subverts the idea of news In these works journalism is not a reporting of fact but a reporting of artifice or human-made apparatus artistic technological psychological cultural or otherwise Using a methodology that combines approaches from literary analysis historicism cultural studies media studies and childhood studies Paige Gray shows how the cub reporters of children's literature report the truth of artifice and relish it They signal an embrace of artifice as a means to access individual agency and in doing so both child and adult readers are encouraged to deconstruct and create the world anew Cub Reporters adds an exciting new volume to the growing collection of scholarship about American periodical culture and children's culture alike Gray lays out her arguments neatly and convincingly and supports them throughout The book is accessible convincing and engaging and is poised to become a touchstone for future academic work Karen Roggenkamp author of Narrating the News: New Journalism and Literary Genre in Late Nineteenth Century American Newspapers and Fiction Detecting Women Philippa Gates, 2011-04-22 Finalist for the 2012 Edgar Award in the Best Critical Biographical Category presented by the Mystery Writers of America In this extensive and authoritative study of over 300 films Philippa Gates explores the woman detective figure from her pre-cinematic origins in nineteenth-century detective fiction through her many incarnations throughout the history of Hollywood cinema Through the lens of theories of gender genre and stardom and engaging with the critical concepts of performativity masquerade and feminism Detecting Women analyzes constructions of the female investigator in the detective genre and focuses on the evolution of her representation from 1929 to today While a popular assumption is that images of women have become increasingly positive over this period Gates argues that the most progressive and feminist models of the female detective exist in mainstream film's more peripheral products such as 1930s B picture and 1970s Blaxploitation films Offering revisions and new insights into peripheral forms of mainstream film Gates explores this space that allows a fantasy of resolution of social anxieties about crime and more interestingly gender in the 20th and early 21st centuries The author's innovative engaging and capacious approach to this important figure within feminist film history breaks new ground in the field of gender and film studies The Journalist, 1892 Thrills of a Reporter Stanley Ryan, 1925 The Northeastern Reporter, 1920 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Massachusetts Ohio Indiana and Illinois and Court of Appeals of New York May July 1891 Mar Apr 1936 Appellate Court of Indiana Dec 1926 Feb 1927 Mar Apr 1936
