The Girl in Her Teens Margaret Slattery, 2016-01-07 THE TEEN PERIOD She was a beautiful well developed girl of thirteen Her bright eager face with its changing expression was a fascination at all times It seemed unusually earnest and serious that particular morning as she stood waiting the opportunity to speak to me She had asked to wait until the others had gone and her manner as she hesitated even then to speak made me ask Are you in trouble Edith No not exactly trouble I don't know whether we ought to ask you but all of us girls think well we wish we could have a mirror in the locker room Couldn't we It's dreadful to go into school without knowing how your hair looks or anything I couldn't help laughing Her manner was so tragic that the mirror seemed the most important thing in the educational system just then I said I would see what could be done about it and felt sure that what all the girls wanted could be supplied She thanked me heartily and when she entered her own room nodded her head in answer to inquiring glances from the other girls As I made a note of the request I remembered the Edith of a year or more ago Edith whose mother found her a great trial she didn't care how she looked It was true She wore her hat hanging down over her black braids held on by the elastic band around her neck she lost hair ribbons continually and never seemed to miss them She was a good scholar wide awake alert always ready for the next thing She loved to recite and volunteered information generously In games she was the leader and on the playground always the unanimous choice for the coveted it of the game She was never in the least self-conscious and as her mother had said how she looked never seemed to occur to her

Megan Abbott, bestselling author of Dare Me and Give Me Your Hand, I never meant to lie. That is, I never wanted to. They are Phoenix's First Family: handsome Philip Martin, son of the sitting Senator, an ex-football player who carries himself with an easy grace and appears destined to step into his father's seat when the time is right; his wife Marina, the stylish and elegant director of Phoenix's fine arts museum; and their four-year-old daughter Amabel, beautiful and precocious and beloved. Finn Hunt is working a dull office job to pay off her college debt when she meets Philip and charms Amabel. She eagerly agrees to nanny, thinking she's lucked into the job of a lifetime. Though the glamour of the Martins' lifestyle undeniably dazzles Finn, her real pleasure comes from being part of the family, sharing quick jokes with Philip in the kitchen before he leaves for work, staying late when Marina needs a last-minute sitter, and spending long days with Amabel, who is often treated more like a photo op than a child. But behind every facade lurks a less attractive truth. When a young woman approaches Finn, claiming a connection with Philip and asking Finn to pass on a message, Finn becomes caught up in a web of deceit with the senate seat at its center. And Finn isn't exactly innocent herself; she too has a background she has kept hidden, and under the hot Phoenix sun, everything is about to be laid bare.
